

Teacher Shortage Threatens Language Classes

(This is the third and concluding article of a series prepared by the office of County Superintendent Floyd Marchus, describing the effects of new legislation on the schools.)

Foreign language instruction in the elementary grades is not new to the Contra Costa County school scene, yet, even with experience to guide them, administrators and foreign language specialists are troubled by the problems they expect will arise when all children of the three upper grades are required to study foreign language.

Some clues to the difficulty lie in the subject matter of a meeting, at Contra Costa College. School administrators and curriculum coordinators heard teachers and state department of education consultant, Everett O'Rourke speak on "The Impact of AB 2654 on Foreign Language Instruction."

AB 2654, more familiarly known as the Casey-Bee bill, requires foreign language instruction in grades 6-8. The group will consider such aspects as: What is the method recommended for this instruction? How to prepare teachers for foreign language instruction by 1965? What materials to use? What policies have been developed by the state department of education in relation to this bill?

FOREIGN language instruction has its own peculiar problems, the foremost of which is a shortage of teachers. The number of elementary teachers qualified to teach foreign language and native speakers trained in teaching is woefully limited.

Add to the teacher shortage the question of which language or languages to teach and if more than one, the mounting need for books, tapes, records, etc.; the present lack of funds for the necessary teaching materials; the assignment of teachers to the elementary classroom—those who are prepared to teach foreign language and those who are not, but are competent in other subjects, and the danger of wasting the child's new found language facility by failing to provide an opportunity for continuing the language at the high school level.

Modern experts in foreign language agree that the emphasis in teaching younger children a foreign language should be on listening and speaking. This is the way the human infant learns his native tongue. It is the method used, in short and intensive form, by the armed services in teaching foreign languages.

The curriculum content in foreign language has not changed, as it has in mathematics and science, but the listen-speak method of teaching is changing foreign language instruction profoundly.

IDEALLY, the foreign language student who learns to listen and speak and think in the "target" language should be able by the end of junior year in high school to speak with facility, to understand broadcasts, to read periodicals and contemporary literature, to use the dictionary and to take notes and write in the language.

There are many hurdles in the way to achieving the ideal. The grade placement introduced by the Casey-Bee bill does not coincide with the findings of the studies undertaken by the Modern Language Association. These indicate that the child has considerable facility for learning language up to the mental age of 12 and that if he once learns a second language before that age, mastery of still others is much easier.

IF THE student gets off to a good start in mastering a foreign language, he requires study at the high school level and again at the college level of a far greater intensity than that generally available. The problems fall upon each other like dominoes in a row.

It is very much in the national interest to develop widespread skill in the languages of other countries. But, foreign language specialists feel apprehensive about trying to compress so large a job into so little time. There are no "instant" foreign language teaching methods or foreign language teachers.

Taxpayers Rep Talks on Budget

The importance of each citizen participating in and becoming familiar with the finance problems of his district was emphasized by Bruce Howard, director of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association. He addressed a meeting of the Civic Affairs Committee of the Orinda Association at a meeting Monday at 8 p.m. at the Orinda School.

THE TAXPAYERS' association presently has about 80 or 90 active participants and 1200 members, according to Howard. It operates on a $30,000 annual budget through contributions of interested citizens.

Its purpose, he explained, is to better understand county government and to give residents a bigger voice in local government. Howard discussed the seven active committees of the taxpayers' association. They work with the various county agencies in planning budgets, and represent the citizens to see that budgets are held at a reasonable level.

"The county budget constitutes about 31 per cent of the average tax bill. For every $90,000 increase in the county budget the tax rate went up one cent for every $100 evaluation," Howard said.

SUBJECTS which the association is currently discussing are: the county budget which is under preparation; school district unification; county welfare, health and welfare of migratory farm workers; study of county road bond issue soon to be on ballot; and the county park plan bond issue for $7,200,000.

Howard stressed that while the association is working only on the county budget, there are approximately 197 special districts through the county which have the power to tax. He recommended that a responsibility for keeping an eye on the budget is up to the citizens and each taxpayer should become familiar with it.

"A CITIZEN can't complain about the budget of his district if he doesn't understand it," he said.

In addition to Howard's remarks, a business meeting was held by chairman Charles A. Legge. The committee began consideration of its function for the coming year. A forum now advises all organizations in Orinda as to worthwhile projects and study groups. No decisions have been made as yet by the association.

Gas War Hits East Bay; Is Local Threat

Gasoline merchants in this area today were watching their gas pumps with one eye and a potential East Bay gas war with the other as they pondered the result of such price-slashing on the local situation.

A wave of price cutting which threatened to reach tidal proportions began sweeping through the East Bay area early this week. It swept from Oakland southward to Alameda County and northward through the Richmond-San Pablo area.

From the tunnel to the straits, service station men were pondering a two-way result which might be expected in this area.

First, they might lose much of their commuter trade as gas stations located at the other end of the line.

Second, the price-cutting might spread to the local service stations in self-defense.

Either way the local dealers figure to lose and point with some fear to the result of a similar price war which erupted about this same time last year. It dragged on for more than three months and some 500 stations were forced to close down, many of them never reopening.

The standard price of 31.9 cents per gallon for major-brand gasoline has already been dropped as low as 25.9 cents a gallon.

Some of the independents and regional chains blame the price war on their immediate competition. All agree that it could not continue without full support of major oil firms.

Jamboree Delayed for Miramonte

Miramonte Parents Club jamboree date has been changed from April 13 to May 4 due to conflict with Easter vacation.

The later date was decided upon as more convenient for everyone. Same music, Henry Gallagher, same show (with more rehearsals!) and now teachers, parents and students together can enjoy the show and dancing. Show time is 8:30.

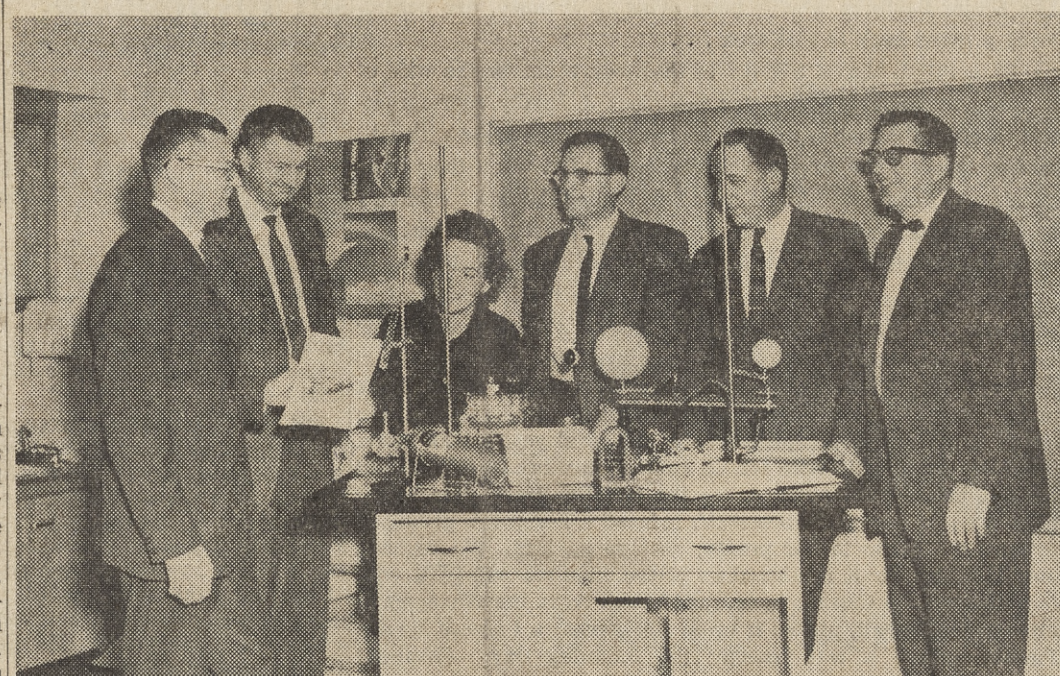

Tickets have been mailed to all parents of Miramonte students. Additional tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Henry Harris, 30 Park Lane, Orinda.

Jean Strong is organizing pot-luck suppers to which the teachers will be invited. She is still in need of more hostesses. Call her at CL 4-3068 if you'd like to help entertain the Miramonte faculty.

Language, Vision Tests Reviewed at Meeting

A regular adjourned meeting on the third Monday of each month to hear special reports will be held by the Orinda Union School District board of trustees, it was agreed by the board Monday night at the library of Pine Grove School. The purpose of the adjourned meetings, according to the office of Joseph L. Sheaff, district superintendent, is to cover research projects dealing with instruction and to go over curriculum reports.

In the past, the adjourned meeting was held only if left-over business warranted it, or if something special was on the agenda. By scheduling the adjourned meeting in addition to the regular meeting on the first Monday, the board expects to hear various special reports. These will include surveys on vision, language, health, curriculum and math.

AT MONDAY'S meeting reports on the development of the foreign language program in Orinda and the visual screening study were given.

Mrs. Ed Johnson, the district foreign language coordinator, described the audio-visual language tests initiated in the fall of 1960 and '61 in the fourth to sixth grades. It was explained that the proposal was extended for the 1961-62 school year to include testing at the seventh and eighth-grade level. These tests are under the auspices of the national defense education act, title 3.

As part of a doctoral dissertation by Mrs. Mary Dufort at the University of California, Berkeley, and aided by Mrs. Johnson, the Spanish I audio comprehension ability test was developed. This was described in a recent issue of the California Journal of Elementary Education. It represents one of the first attempts to design a test to evaluate student achievement in an audio-lingual foreign language program.

District Gets Govt. Increase

Congressman John F. Baldwin announced today that he has been informed by the commissioner of education of the United States that favorable action has been taken on the application of the Orinda Union School District for federal assistance for current expenditures pursuant to public law 874, which provides for financial assistance for schools in federally-affected areas.

The commissioner of education has determined that the tentative entitlement for the Orinda Union School District for fiscal year 1962 will be $14,837. Of this sum, $10,237 is being certified for immediate payment.

Ahoy! Girl Scouts Hold Shipboard Meet

The Orinda senior Girl Scout mariner ship 61, the Dreadnought, held its semi-annual ceremony at the most formal meeting recently at the Orinda scout hut. Navigator Maureen McConnell conducted the meeting and welcomed the guests, which included Orinda eighth grade scouts and their leaders, scout scouts from Moraga and Lafayette and parents.

Standard first-aid certificates were given to members of the crew evidencing completion of the course given by Bill Koch of the Orinda fire department. Midshipmate awards were given to Kathy Spinks and Carolyn Brown. Milaanne Hecathorn was awarded her Jack Tar stripe.

One of the highlights of the evening was the surprise appearance of King Neptune to duly initiate Cathie Oliphant into the "mysteries of the deep" before she was awarded her Seaman stripes.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Patricia Fisher, adult leader for the national round-up this summer, who spoke on all phases of senior scouting available in the Diablo Valley council, and Miss Rowie Loughman, assistant Girl Scout leader, recently chosen the delegate from region 12 to attend this summer the camp in experimental living in Germany.

Maureen McConnell was presented with the Skipper's trophy, given twice each year, to an outstanding Mariner in the ship.

Orinda North Owner Meets With Planners

The planning committee of the Orinda Association met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ritchie Ward, 93 El Toyonal, to discuss general ideas regarding the 190 acres behind Pine Grove School, between Pine Grove and North Alta Orinda.

Jack Marchant, representing the present owners of the Orinda property, attended the meeting.

CHAIRMAN of the committee, Dick Bartle, said that their group would be happy to work with people who have demonstrated a desire to meet with the committee and to communicate with it for the betterment of Orinda.

The owners of the Orinda North property were previously represented by Bernard Muth, whom the committee felt had little regard for the terrain. The subdivision plan which he filed was unacceptable on behalf of the owners and was withdrawn.

The Orinda North owners include Les Guthrie, Don Doty and Marchant.

THEY ARE willing to give certain areas of the parcel for park and green belt in exchange for a small amount of "a.o." or zoning wherein professional office buildings might be erected and an undetermined amount of zoning for multiple, according to Marchant. The remainder would be residential.

Family of the Week

IT WAS A GREAT DAY for the Irish last week and helping celebrate St. Patrick's was the sizable brood belonging to Phil and Kay Reynolds of Dolores Way, who were almost pioneers when they moved to that Del Rey area 11 years ago. The youngest member of the family is fair Eileen, age 6, who joins her mother and father on the love seat. There's Barbara, 17, a Miramonte junior, whose Irish eyes are smiling like those of her younger sister, Margaret (Maggie), 13, who attends Inland Valley Intermediate, and Del Rey schoolers Patty, aged 10, and Bill, who's 11. The family's chief interests center around their church, Santa Maria, and Kay Reynolds has known Father David Harrington since she herself was a youngster schooling at Oakland's St. Jarlath's when he was the assistant pastor there working with the young people of that parish. Kay is currently lining up speakers as vice president and program chairman for the Santa Maria Women's Club, while husband Phil, a toxicologist with Western Lab in Oakland, is one of the most faithful volunteers for the annual church festival held every September. Daughter Barbara is vice president of Ailanthus, the junior CHEB branch; Patty is one of Bob Sherman's diving champs and last year attended the Invitational Junior Olympics held at Redding, and the whole family are sports and hi-fi enthusiasts, while gardening and sewing appeal to Kay in her spare time.

Swallows Back to Moraga

The swallows are returning to Moraga today.

"As surely as they came back to Capistrano last Monday, they'll return en masse, or 'in mess,' according to Mrs. Helen Hetfield, proprietor of the Moraga Barn Bar. The Barn, a three-story landmark in 'old' Moraga, is the swallows' favorite nesting place.

Swarms of the birds have returned the same day each year to the Barn for the 41 years that Mrs. Hetfield has been there. And probably they have been annual lodgers ever since the Barn was built in 1910, intended as a hotel for people—not for the birds.

For business reasons, manager Art Flenti says that they would like to keep the swallows away. In previous years, he has sent out an SOS (Sink our Swallows) to the Audubon Society and the University of California without avail. On March 23 the flock's in. They set up housekeeping under the Barn's eaves, raise their young and fly away in about 10 weeks, when they're good and ready—and not before.

Right on schedule last Sunday, the swallow scouts flew into town to check the mud supply with which they build their homes. What with the ideal housing conditions caused by this year's rain, perhaps more tenants than usual will put in an appearance.

One of the chief drawbacks to having the Barn go to the swallows, according to one regular patron, is: "Now by looking at our cars, our wives can tell where we've been."

Hats Off To...

Sara Malinowsky, Lady Who Heads Library Staff

Miramonte's Book Bin during the noon hour . . . Gail Hanford,

ENGRAVE some book plates, please, in honor of Sara Malinowsky, Orinda Librarian, who, since 1955, 'way back in the basement library of Orinda Community Church, has looked after and lent us our books.

The native Montanman, who at one time taught high school art in South Dakota, is currently readying our handsome library for a display-exhibit for National Library Week, April 8-15. She is a member of the American Library Association and the Californian Library Association and in 1958 took a year's leave of absence to become a "professional" librarian by furthering her library studies at U.C.

The likable lady, who is the epitome of good taste, has fun matching her smart wardrobe to the colors of the tasteful interior and furnishings (capri red and robin egg blue) of the Orinda Library and is, in turn, supported by a very stylish staff of assistants who are a far cry from the drab bentover bookworm librarians of another generation.

THE LIBRARY has come a long way over the years and beautiful ones such as our own, says Sara, serve as a real incentive to developing more reading interest, especially among the young people.

A grandmother of three little girls (her daughter lives nearby in Salinas), Mrs. Malinowsky's other hobbies include travel (Brazil and the Orient), good music, attending symphonies and art exhibits. That is, when she's not burning the midnight oil at her Lafayette home where she reads long into the night reviewing for selection the fine books that fill our library shelves.

Superintendent Of Schools Will Seek Re-Election

Dr. Floyd Marchus announced today he will be a candidate to succeed himself as Contra Costa County superintendent of schools in the June 5 primary.

He was elected to the office in 1958 upon the retirement of B. O. Wilson.

Marchus characterized the school department as "in transition, advancing the program established in the previous administration and reorganizing for change in a rapidly changing county."

Some of the developments of the department, he added, promise to become important nationally. He noted a study of mental health in school children and the possibilities of financing academic performance, to which $26,700 has been granted by the Rosenberg Foundation, and an analysis by Dr. Hilda Taba, San Francisco State College, of social studies units developed in Contra Costa County, for which $26,500 has been granted by the United States Office of Education.

Aquabears Win Third Meet of Season, 368-81

The Aquabears, local AAU age-group swim team, easily won their third dual meet of the season last Saturday when they outscored the San Leandro Beavers, 368-81. The meet was held at the San Leandro High School pool.

Three local swimmers were outstanding, winning three events each. They were Peter Schnugg and Susie Barkley of Orinda and a newcomer to the team, Melissa Mattingly from San Ramon.

Double winners were Barbie York, Cindy Stewart and David Mirov, all of Orinda; Chris Umphred of Walnut Creek and John Fabris of Berkeley.

The outstanding time in the meet was turned in by the 13 and 14-year-old girls' medley relay team who swam the 200-yard event in two minutes, 9.5 seconds, missing the national record by 1/10 of a second. Members of the team were Marilee Rocca, Lafayette; Vicki Ullrich and Chris Umphred, both of Walnut Creek and Mary Jacoby.

A Moraga handyman was revived by resuscitator Monday—however, his roto-tiller was nearly drowned!

The Lafayette Fire Department answered an emergency call at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Ennor, 3171 Somerset Place, Lafayette. They had no difficulty reviving Carl Madsen, 2 Madsen Court, Moraga, who had fainted while roto-tilling the Ennor's backyard.

The roto-tiller kept going and broke through a plastic pool cover, diving into the deep end of the Ennor's pool. Madsen enlisted the aid of Moraga ranchers Sam Carr and Steve Mazika to retrieve the 800-pound tiller. It was not as easy as bringing Madsen to bed. A winch and "come-along" were enlisted to tug the tiller to the shallow end of the pool.

Madsen reports that he is fine—but he's not so sure about the tiller!

The Sociables

By MARIE MONAHAN

A lady who had her face lifted shared honors Saturday night with the president of the Orinda Country Club and the patron Saint of Ireland when Orinda Country Club members and guests gathered for a triple celebration.

The annual President's Ball, always around St. Patrick's and the club's most popular yearly party, was certainly the appropriate time to toast the newly-remodeled clubhouse with its special and very elegant addition of the new bar overlooking the 18th Hole . . . And with a membership roster reading names like Calhoun, Sheehan, Reilly and McGuire, it was a Great Day for the Clubhouse as well as the Irish.

The Wearin' of the Green was very much in evidence with two of the prettiest gowns on Dorothy (Mrs. John) Reilly and Ben (Mrs. Art) Comerford. The latter's husband Art heads this year's entertainment committee . . . Bobbye (Mrs. William) McGuire over from Happy Valley fell right into the St. Pat's spirit having stitched kelly green shamrocks to a white bouffant net skirt as well as trimming Bill's tie.

A CAPACITY number of guests clogged the country club rooms and the crowded dance floor took on the aspects of an Irish Donnybrook. It may have looked like they were doing the Irish Jig but it was more of an Irish Twist to old favorites like McNamara's Band and Dear Ole Donegal! In fact, they twisted to ANYTHING!

From streamers overhead to tall paper hats, green carnation centerpieces to green parfaits for dessert, the St. Patrick's theme was carried out . . . A mammoth five-foot Shamrock framed the handsome new Fairway Lounge aptly named by Joan Calder who took top honors in the club's "name-it" contest. Here, the expansive use of glass, subdued lighting and the glamour of a new room distinguished by Danish moderne decor. Everybody raving over the new swivel chairs, comfortable as well as distinctive.

AT PRESIDENT Robert Johnson's table, sharing honors with he and his wife Ella Mae, were the new club officers and their wives. In this group were Raysay Underwood, vice-president; Beach Dean, secretary; Edwin Foley, financial director; Dr. William Smith, activities director; Dwight Skaggs and William McGuire, directors-at-large.

The Underwoods and the McGuires were in the large crowd that lifted early libations at the Orchard Road residence of the Ernest Abbes—just if you like, the Moraga Way home of the same where guests can trip across the creek via a charming white bridge and onward and upward to the Abbes' abode, this being the back way but more scenic entry.

Laurie Abbes, wearing a red silk print, and her host-husband Ernie greeted the Jack Banisters, the Aubrey Sweets, Stan & Van Holmgren (she in a gorgeous gold number), the William Scatenas, Gerald Aweses over from Happy Valley, the Paul Butlers and Carol and Bruce Anderson during the early pre-dinner hours.

MORE crossing over the bridge to cocktails here were Marge and Bill Higgins of Lafayette, the James Felchins, Bill and Gail Hanford, the Art Lundblads (Dorothy wearing her long swish banker's coat from Hong Kong, Marceline and Harry Martin who hail from Happy Valley, Dorothy and Jack Reilly and Betty and Ed Bergen. Meeting many new friends were Mary and Andy Love, recent newcomers from La Jolla, who are living on Katrina Court in Sleepy Hollow.

MORE REASON for celebrations: Pat (Mrs. Don Parle) White celebrating her Birthday, festive in a sheath of silver-threaded lame . . . Another Birthday for Blake Calder who was on the receiving end of many a round of felicitations.

Eleanor Underwood's dress a knockout, a bell-shaped silk print with a floppy rose at the waist . . . Judy & Val Brookes, Hi & Shirley Hennings, the Paul Mousers, the Hugh McIntyres, the Harry Pecks and the Bill Calhouns more on the jammed dance floor.

Bill and Jane Sheehan over from Lafayette introducing their daughter Gayle and her guest Ed Regan from Santa Barbara. The foursome tabled with Ridge & Louise Greathouse . . . The William Jaekels, Peg and Bob Field, the Mo Leaheys more making it a Great Day for the Irish, a Grand Night for the Club!

State Plans Fight Against Pear-Juniper Rust in Area

All of Contra Costa County will probably be declared a pear-juniper rust eradication area by the State Department of Agriculture if was disclosed this week by Charles Paul, state director.

The establishment of an eradication area would give the director and the county agricultural commissioner authority to take measures to eradicate the disease from pear trees and juniper plants in the county.

Persons interested in commenting on the proposed action should present a written expression of their views to the Sacramento office of the Agriculture Department before 5 p.m. next Wednesday.

THE PEAR-JUNIPER rust, a fungus disease, was discovered in Contra Costa County in the fall of 1960. It is the first report of this disease in the United States.

After a tree-by-tree survey by the State and County Departments of Agriculture, a state plant quarantine was established covering an area of approximately four miles square in the Lafayette district to prevent the movement of infected plants to new areas.

The rust fungus lives on two plants. It can cause serious damage to pear trees, but is only slightly disfiguring to juniper plants which are widely used in ornamental plantings in the Lafayette area. The fungus cannot live and propagate if one of its two hosts is absent.

hosts, pear trees and juniper. THE LIFE cycle of the fungus is similar to that of the cedar apple rust disease known in the central and eastern United States, and which has been very damaging to apple trees there.

Since pear-juniper rust is not known elsewhere in the United States, and is presently confined to a relatively small area, efforts are being made to eradicate it before it spreads to other areas of the state.

The attack is being directed primarily against the junipers on which the rust lives through the winter months. The joint state and county program is using eradicative-type fungicidal sprays to inhibit the development of the spores and to kill those produced before they can reach and infect the pear trees.

THE PROPOSED methods of eradication include the examination of host plants, the removal and destruction of infected pear trees and juniper plants, and the repeated application of fungicides to prevent new infections.

A copy of the proposed order may be obtained from the Bureau of Plant Pathology, California Department of Agriculture, Sacramento, or from A. L. Sealey, agricultural commissioner of Contra Costa County at Buchanan Field, Concord.

Spring Concert Is Successful

The Miramonte High School orchestra gave an outstanding performance at its first spring concert last Friday evening at the high school. Particularly well received by the listeners was their rendition of "Fugue in G Minor" by Bach.

Lawrence Anderson, director of music at Miramonte, conducted the 30-member orchestra, the concert band, girls' chorus, a cappella choir and octet in a full and varied program of fine music.

Also featured in the evening's program were two piano soloists Archie Meader, who played "The Dream of Olwen" by Charles Williams, and John Calderwood, who played "Premiere Ballade in G Minor" by Chopin.

Drive carefully along our winding roads. Children walk and play there, and sometimes they are hard to see.

Mutnick Hurls Debate Defy

Harold E. Mutnick, Lafayette attorney and "the other man" in the Democratic race for the Fourteenth District congressional nomination, has challenged Russell M. Koch, local CDC director, to a debate.

Mutnick wants to discuss what he calls the issue: "Whether the people of Contra Costa County will permit their right to select their candidate for congress at a free and open primary election to be by-passed by an unofficial convention."

Charles G. Weidner of Pleasant Hill was given the endorsement of a convention of 26 county Democratic clubs held at Concord a month ago. Koch has supported the action and called Mutnick's protest "sour grapes."

HERE IS the reply to Koch's recent press statement as issued this week by Mutnick:

"I favor a strong Democratic club movement in the county which is truly a grass-roots democratic movement. The convention system and the club movement are not the same!"

"I affirm the right of the people of the Democratic Party to select their own candidates at the primary election. No convention can take away that right from the people, granted and protected under the laws of the State of California.

"YES, I did seek the endorsement of the Concord Inn convention but never did I promise to withdraw my candidacy and pledge support to the choice of the convention. To have done so would have been in direct violation of the people's legal right to select their candidates at the primary election, and would, in effect, make the primary election a meaningless gesture."

"I did not state, as Mr. Koch alleges, that said convention was 'undemocratic'. I merely indicated to the voters of the county that the action of said convention was not the official action of the Democratic Party of the county Democratic central committee; that it only represented the action of individual club members and not the action of elected delegates; that 346 persons did not speak for the 108,000 registered Democrats of Contra Costa County, and that the Direct Primary Election Law was adopted in California to eliminate the undemocratic abuses of the convention system."

"HOWEVER, since Mr. Koch, possibly in throes of conscience, has seen fit to discuss the conduct of this specific convention, I wish to call your readers' attention to the following less-than-democratic actions observed and reported, in part, in the local press and over the local radio network:

Voting commenced before any of the candidates had a chance to be heard.

Open marking of multiple ballots.

Seating for persons present was inadequate and a travesty. For example, there were one and a half rows of seats (15) for 49 persons from the Pittsburg area; one row of seats (10) for 65 persons from the Lafayette area.

Inadequate check made on alleged credentials of persons eligible to attend.

Seating of "paper clubs," which exist only fictionally.

Voting took place in the bar and in the rest rooms.

Proximity of the bar to the hall of the convention. As part of its evaluation it was publicly stated at the last meeting of the Democratic County Central Committee, in Martinez, on March 13, that "the bar was too handy to the convention."

Requirement of a $1.25 poll tax.

Persons eligible to vote were not elected delegates but individual club members who spoke only for themselves.

"I NOW ask Mr. Koch in what manner my factual statement, in calling a spade a spade, was 'untrue' or 'unsportsmanlike?' I have sought, and seek, the endorsement of my candidacy by all groups of voters.

"To seek that support does not bind me to their choice. The people of the county are the final choosers! If this be 'sour grapes,' I ask the people to judge.

"The issue is whether the people of Contra Costa County will permit their right to select their candidate for congress at a free and open primary election to be by-passed by an unofficial convention."

"I openly challenge Mr. Koch to public debate on this issue on any impartial platform or radio station or TV channel."

LET'S BLOW might be the motto of these members of the Mt. Diablo High School Band as they musically make an appeal for their projected trip to the Seattle World's Fair. Public Invited to View Sun Travel Tips, Film

A free showing of films depicting The Sun's "Jubilee Holiday" in Europe this summer and expert advice on jet-age fashions and getting packed will be offered during The Sun Travel Night, April 11 at Acalanes High School.

The entertaining session, which always draws an audience of hundreds, will begin at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Actually it is a "dry run" for those planning a trip abroad or merely dreaming of one. The public is invited without charge to attend the show, whether planning on taking advantage of The Sun's Jubilee Holiday trip to Europe or not.

Incidentally, those who have signed up for The Sun Jubilee Holiday trip to Europe will visit Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Liechtenstein, Austria, Italy, Monaco, France and England, with an optional side trip to Spain and Portugal.

Reservations are rolling in to The Sun office and the local travel agent. The cost for the tour, which leaves June 14, is only $1179.

Experienced globe-trotters will be on hand to give wardrobe advice, highly essential in providing suitable wearing apparel for all occasions and yet coming within the maximum weight limits imposed by the various air lines.

There will also be a display of the latest in fashions suitable for the trip and advice on combining various items to make the wardrobe more flexible and expanded.

Tips on the trip are also scheduled. Veteran vacationers point out some of the extra attractions to be viewed and customs of the various lands to be visited, with suggestions as to dealing with the citizens, service employees and officials.

No reservations are necessary to attend the film show and information meeting at 8 p.m., April 11 in Acalanes High School.

Litter Laws to Be Debated by Cleanup Group

Drafts of two county ordinances, one stringent and one moderate, but both designed to cut down the litter on Contra Costa highways, will be presented to the county's Highway Cleanup Committee at its next meeting, April 26, according to Chairman Edmund A. Linscheid of Pittsburg.

The alternative ordinances will be prepared by Deputy District Attorney R. C. Brunzell, who said they will be ready for study and recommendations to the Board of Supervisors at the cleanup committee's next session.

The ordinances will describe the types of advertising literature which will be illegal to distribute to porches and driveways without specific permission of householders.

Talent Auditions Are Scheduled by Pageant of Arts

More than four-fifths of the fatal and injury accidents which occurred in California last year involved a traffic violation, Highway Patrol Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden said.

"At least one violation was present in 82 per cent of the 108,999 accidents reported in 1961."

"The simple expedient of lawful driving could have saved more than 3100 of the 3839 lives lost, and 135,000 of the 163,945 persons injured."

"Carelessness, inattention, physical disability, bad weather—all are frequently named as accident causes. The factor which appears most often, however, is non-compliance with the law."

"If you want to avoid an accident, drive legally. This is your best safeguard against tragedy on the highway," the commissioner said.

Over 500 Places Will Be Set for McCunn Banquet

One hundred more servings were added and still they were not enough to meet the demands of citizens planning on attending the testimonial dinner honoring Dr. Drummond J. McCunn with more than 500 persons purchasing tickets to assure a capacity crowd next Friday evening.

David E. Fisher, president of the Taxpayers and Parents Association for Better Education, Inc., announced the sell-out by inviting those unable to be among the diners to attend the after-dinner festivities beginning at 8 p.m. A donation of $1 has been requested for this privilege.

Principal speaker will be Professor Edward S. Carmick, who will take the theme: "We must win on the vital front of American education."

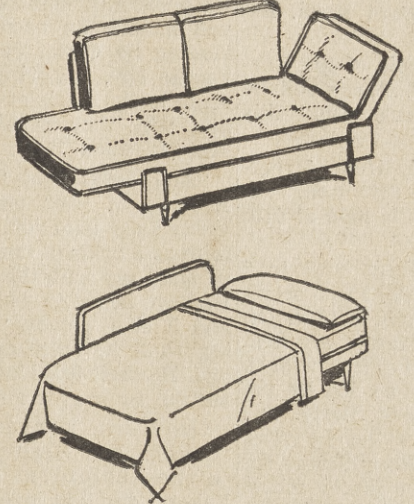

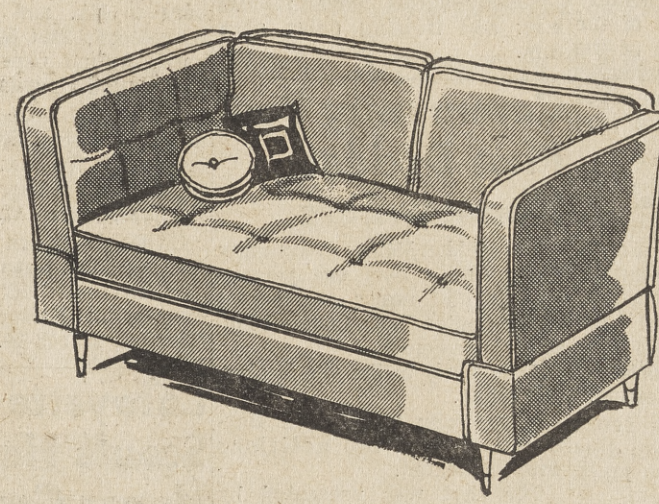

Several well-known local residents will also speak briefly in honor of Dr. McCunn. Included in this part of the program are Ed J. J. McKeegan, former mayor of Richmond; Howard Eddy, Concord businessman; Edward E. Heavey, attorney; Mrs. Mary Mangini, chairman of the Parents Committee for Civic Responsibility; Reverend George L. Moore, pastor of First Baptist Church, Walnut Creek; and O. J. Wohlgenuth, former board member of the junior college district.

Fisher thanked the members of the planning committees for their efforts which have helped ensure the success of this event. The chairmen of the committees are: Al Engleking and Roger Cullen, publicity; Mark Valory, finance; Phil Gilbert, programs; and Ronald Terry, tickets.

Fisher urges all prospective diners to reach the banquet hall in the Diablo Valley College student activities building early. Service will begin promptly at 7:00 p.m.

Taxpayer Head Opposes Flat Salary Raises

President E. L. Slagle this week declared the opposition of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association against any increase of county civil service salaries by a fixed dollar amount per month.

Slagle explained that a flat $50 per month salary increase for county civil service employees, recently requested by union leaders, would violate a sound principle previously adopted by the Civil Service Commission and concurred in by the board of supervisors.

"This basic principle sets forth the premise that county employee salaries will be based primarily upon the prevailing rates paid by comparable governmental units and private businesses in the area," Slagle asserted.

In ceremonies before the board of supervisors Tuesday, March 27, 1962, 10 county employees are scheduled to receive awards for service totaling 130 years with the county.

The program, scheduled for 3 p.m., in the board of supervisors chambers, will honor the following employees:

Fifteen years: Rudolph J. Krantz, county building inspector; William R. Smaker, veterans service officer; William R. Martin, supervising sanitarian; Victor M. Quilici, road maintenance foreman for public works; Lionel G. Shepherd, deputy sheriff, and Gertrude M. Jones, matron in sheriff's department.

Ten years: Rosie Mae Warren, custodian for superintendent of buildings; John F. Walsh, deputy sheriff; Louis Sanchez, laborer for public works, and Delbert Swartzleopard, senior draftsman for public works.

Participating will be County Administrator Joseph P. McBrien, Personnel Director F. Eric Emery and the employees' department heads.

Community Pool Plan Divides Homeowners

The Hidden Valley Community Swim Club's land use permission is still under advisement by the Contra Costa County Planning Commission.

A field trip to the site is planned today.

At an open meeting in Martinez last week two petitions were presented.

The first was presented by Charles Busso and signed by 65 residents of the area who were in favor of the petition.

Raymond Bolton, attorney and resident of the area, then protested the granting of the permit. He filed a petition against it with 32 signatures.

Elliott Hartman, treasurer of the swim club, offered a rebuttal to Bolton's argument. Hartman is listed as the owner in the recording of the request for a land-use permit, as the club was yet unincorporated.

The swim club reported eight or nine regulations. One of them was voluntary reduction of membership from 75 members to 50.

Home & Garden

Trees of Disinction Fit in Every Garden

If someone asked you to name the most attractive small tree in the general nursery trade, you could make a good case for the Japanese Maples. At least it would be very hard to find others more attractive.

Whether grown as bonsai dwarfs, as container trees or as full size specimens, Japanese Maples are all the gardener could ask. Their delicately cut leaves, modest size and attractive fall coloring are all plus factors. And even if the fall color does not reach its potential, as often happens in even-temperatures coastal gardens, you cannot really find fault with this handsome tree.

Members of the California Association of Nurserymen offer several Japanese Maples which the gardener should acquaint himself with. Commonest of them is the standard green leaf variety which so often fills the need of a small patio tree. Its leaves are deeply cut in some specimens, not so deeply cut in others. Choose them when they are in leaf if you are particular about this. This is the Japanese Maple which often blazes with color in fall gardens.

Another is the Bloodleaf Maple, a tree of startling red-purple color from the time it breaks its winter rest until the leaves drop in fall. Still another is the lovely Laceleaf Maple, whose red leaves are so finely cut you might think them shredded if

Mulching Aids to Keep Ground Moist

Mulching is the gardeners best protection against that old California summer taboo—neglect from the hose. Camellias, Azaleas, Fuchsias, Hydrangeas and many another shrub should be mulched now with a good thick layer of steer manure or peat moss thoroughly soaked. For if April still holds promise of rain hereabouts, we know that the promise fades rapidly as May approaches. A good mulch, incidentally, is insurance against your favorite shrub's drying out when you go on vacation.

Plant Summer Mums

Summer mums—those riotous little cushion chrysanthemums—should be planted this month in a sunny place. They give you satisfaction and seemingly endless bloom. Cushion mums begin blooming in late spring, continue on through summer if you water and feed them frequently.

Keep Fresh milk on your table

Keep milk on your table and two good things happen. First, your favorite foods taste even better. More important, your meals are more likely to be balanced in essential nutrients. Milk supplements the nutrients you get from meat, vegetables and cereal foods. That's why milk and dairy products are one of the four basic food groups you need daily for balanced nutrition. Remember, you never outgrow your need for the nutrients in milk. Drink three glasses every day.

East Bay Producers' Milk Council

More than $81,795 is the target at which Contra Costa County Branch of the American Cancer Society will aim when it conducts its annual cancer campaign here in April, it was announced Wednesday by John L. Cooley of Walnut Creek. Contra Costa's 1962 campaign chairman.

This compares with $78,634 raised here during the April drive last year. "We hope to raise a smuch money as possible—even more than quota because the needs of the cancer program are continually growing with the influx of population and stepped-up research," Cooley said.

"The rate at which cancer research has grown in the past few years is phenomenal," Cooley said. "Fund raising must keep up with this growth of research if we are to discover the cure for cancer and continue with our educational and service functions."

Working with Cooley to set up a county-wide volunteer fundraising organization is Mrs. Harold C. Bates of Moraga, county residential chairman.

Mrs. Thomas Van Voorhis, Walnut Creek chairman, said today that Walnut Creek's share of $8500 of the county total hoped for is the second single community total in central Contra Costa.

Largest community total in the county is Richmond, with $10,450, and largest in the central part of the county is Concord with $9900. Other central Contra Costa community quotas are as follows:

Lafayette, $7500; Orinda, $7000; Danville, $5640; Pleasant Hill, $3700, and Alamo, $1650.

Rhodons Are Tough

April and May are peak months for rhododendron bloom and the gardener who doesn't know what he wants until he sees it should start his shopping now. The gardener who lives outside the normally accepted rhododendron belt will find these beauties quite a bit tougher than many people give them credit for. With some extra shade and water in the drier, warmer areas, rhododendrons can be a real garden feature.

Thought is, perhaps, the fore-runner and even the mother of ideas, and ideas are the most powerful and the most useful things in the world.

Miramonte Mirror

By KITTY MIKA and ANN LINCOLN

What a weekend! As the end of school approaches it seems that Miramonte's social activities multiply. Besides all the parties and normal activities, plans for senior activities are now in progress. Rehearsals for the senior play to be held March 30 and 31 are held every day after school. The play is going to be a riot so make sure and get your tickets.

The Diana's fashion show, "Mardi Gras," was held at the Lake Merritt Hotel last Saturday. All who went said it was a wonderful show—the clothes from Little Daisy were "darling". Some of the girls who were lucky enough to model the spring fashions were Bonnie Palmer, Linda Sears, Sue Nicolaysen, Pat Kelly, Sandy Poulsen, Nancy Hanley, Suzanne Portello, Jeanne Patten, Joan Ehle and Nicki Kalivas. By the way, Nicki was voted Diana with the best figure.

Entertainment was provided by the Miramonte Jazz Quartet and Tom Gunn's Octet. As an added attraction, quite a few door prizes were given away at the show, and some surprised squeals of delight were heard when Bonnie Kent, Linnet Trefts, Linda Van Sickle and Barb Reynolds were some of the lucky winners. Oh, I never win anything.

Friday night was the annual Spring Concert put on by the Miramonte music department. It was an enjoyable program with the band, choir and chorus all participating. Some of the teens enjoying and taking part in the program were Pam Pearson, Karen Voll, Ken White, Sue Natress, Linda Jones, Mary Baker, Tammy Wilson, Doug Knudsen, Sharlene Mosotta, Tom Gunn, Judy Hopkins, Mike Rolley, Jeanette Miller and Jake Jacobsen.

Friday night was also party night at Keith St. Clair's. Among the teens having the usual good time were Pat Canfield and Greg Peterson, Skip Spaich and Jackie Villata, Cheri Romer and Roger McCosker, Bonnie Kent and Sam De Franco and Sharon Huebswerlen and Roger Howard.

My how time flies—the way some of these sophomores age. Sue Brown reached the ripe old age of 16 and to celebrate she and Bruce Nickerson went out to dinner at the Hickory Pit. It won't be long now until we have a whole new crop of drivers—stay off the roads and live!

It seems as if every teen in Orinda was enjoying a great party at Pete Parrish's Saturday night. Between dancing, etc., elections for some kind of group were held—we're not quite sure who was elected to what, though.

Some of the countless guys and gals there were Toni Ayres and Ran Jouthas, Karen Natress and Dan Withers, DeeDee Davis and Brad Harlan, Jeanette Miller and Rick Merriam, Linnet Trefts and Steve Miller, Kathy Beconcini and Steve Baker, Carolyn Colburn and Steve Williams, Nancy Englehard and Mike McQuaid, Jackie Edenhorn and Paul McChesney, Nancy Bregar and Paul Barrett, Dwight Thompson and Ginny, and Brad Peter and Grigg DeWitt with girls from Del Valley.

The snow forecasts were all wrong! It turned out to be a beautiful weekend in the Sierras last weekend. Just a few teens made their way up to the mountains expecting a snowy weekend, and finding the sun out and the conditions fabulous. Kent Miller and his brother and cousin skied at Squaw Valley, and so did Sherry Odenthal, who was up with her family. Carol Gilmore enjoyed the great conditions at Alpine Meadows with her cousins and brother.

Have a dirty car from all this muddy, rainy weather? Be sure to get that car washed this weekend by members of Ailanthus.

LOOKIE, LOOKIE, Here Come GS Cookies..

TRAVEL POSTERS hold a personal meaning for Miramonte students Mike Eaton (right), Karen Olson (center) and Mrs. Grace Powell, Miramonte's American Field Service coordinator. Under American Field Service auspices, Mike and Karen recently returned from stays in Europe. Mike was in Milan, Italy; Karen in Germany. Both AFSers reported to their fellow Miramonte students on their impressions of the countries and peoples they visited.

Tomorrow is GSC Day—Girl Scout Cookie Day—when all of the green clad scouts of the Diablo Valley and their little sister Brownies open the annual two week's campaign during which each member hopes to sell at least 18 boxes.

According to Mrs. Rose Weston, fourth vice president of the Diablo Valley Area Girl Scout Council and general chairman for the current sale, the goal of selling 18 boxes each is based on the financial needs of the troops, camps and council for 1962.

"The United Bay Area Crusade supplies the necessary funds for the services required to sustain Girl Scout troops. The girls, with their parents provide troop dues, personal uniforms and insignia, summer camping fees, and annual membership in Girl Scouts USA.

"When the girls sell cookies in the fall, their earnings serve twofold: For each case (12 boxes sold) 70 cents remains in the troop and $2.41 goes to the council to benefit all Girl Scouts in this area.

"Troops use their earnings to purchase troop equipment for troop camping, to pay for materials used in their service projects, or, they may save it for a long-term plan such as Troop No. 156, a Senior Scout Troop who is working toward a trip to Our Cabana, the Girl Scout and Girl Guide Hostel in Cuernavaca, Mexico in 1963.

"Their earnings for their council is used to purchase and maintain Girl Scout headquarters at 3570 Terrace Way, Lafayette; to maintain and expand services at Twin Canyon, a 64 acre site used the year around for hiking, troop camping, day camping and adult training, located at the end of Springhill Road in Lafayette, and to pay the annual rental, maintenance and expansion of services at the council's established Camp Sierra Woodlands located in the Tahoe National Forest near Sierra City.

"In addition, in 1962 $1000 from cookie sale earnings will be used to assist two patrols of Senior Girl Scouts with their transportation expenses to the Senior Scout Roundup to be held at Button Bay State Park in Vermont. They will camp for two weeks in July with 8000 Senior Scouts and Guides from all over the free world.

"Your purchase of Girl Scout cookies," said Mrs. Weston, "not only provides you with a cookie of high quality, but also assures you that you are making a substantial contribution to your community by adding to the funds that provide for the character and citizenship training of more than 4000 girls in the Diablo Valley area."

Shapely Dresses Appeal To Man's Eye View!

Do women dress to impress men or to please men? styles, and takes in all the variety. Spring dresses answer the old adage of flares, gores, cones, question in ways that seem to be pleats, bias cuts, all in favor of the men.

Appealing to a man's eye view, princess-high, tunic-low or right where nature put it — and all three look new.

With the costume concept stronger than ever, she can have her spring dresses with jackets or coats — and what a variety of jackets and coats!

Jackets shape up every way, as cardigans, cutaways, cape-lets, boleros.

Back interest comes to the fore in jackets with fly-away backs, bloused or draped backs. Important costume coat is the redingote or reefer, which is cut to show the dress beneath — con-

That Wacky Touch Makes The Designs

Members of the young set flaunt their femininity this spring, as fashion decrees, but it's femininity with the flair, individuality and wacky touches that mark designs for the lively crowd.

This means that, along with princess dresses, shapely skirts, high-waisted coats, airy-jacketed suits and cascades of ruffles which are feminine news, young set wardrobes boast ideas with a difference that bid fair to become trend-setters.

One "new" silhouette looming up on spring's horizon has always been a young set classic—the suit with brief jacket, full whirl of skirt.

Young set leads the way to spreading acceptance of the silhouette and gives it freshness by wearing the skirt without the billowing bouffant petticoats that used to be the rule.

With a slim petti underneath, the skirt falls in soft folds, eddies out prettily when the wearer walks.

Another young newsmaker is a fabric, homespun. It's more than a fashion, it's a rage. Use of this interesting fabric ranges from the classic shirtdress with hem belt to princess flares and sashed Empire dresses.

A NEW HAIRDO for Mrs. Lee Parisi is arranged by LeRoy of LeRoy's Hair Fashions, Lafayette. This new beauty salon features a fabulous five minute hair dryer which allows Mrs. Parisi to have her coif combed only one-half hour from time of shampoo.

KURT the Tailor is modeling a wool brown with gray small check sport coat. His slacks are of brown iridescent wool.

GOLFING IS more fun in this comfortable, pretty outfit found at Country Club Togs of Orinda. Modeled by Jennifer Danner, it features Chevron Bermuda shorts by White Stag with coordinating top. Blouse comes with sleeves or without. Sports enthusiasts have a wide choice of other mix or match outfits in this group.

Man No Longer Fears The Fancy Dress Shirt

It now appears that the average man has lost his fear of fancy dress shirts and as a result there will be many more interesting and good looking spring outfits to be seen.

Most popular of the colored shirts are the blues followed by grays, off-white, tans and soft olive tones.

Pink, the style favorite of several years ago, returns in deeper versions than the old pastels. And the striped fabrics include both narrow and broad types and these often used together.

Collar styles show up in the widely or narrowly, to accent very popular modified spreads, the new high waistlines. Un-snap-taps, button-downs, short belted suits that subtly follow points and both square and body lines compete for interest rounded pinned models.

Necklines Vary Pace

Topping off suit jackets, small and usually notched collars take a stand.

To vary the pace, fashion offers lowered banded or nude necklines, ready for jewelry or both narrow and broad types and scarf fill-ins.

Many jackets are belted, to accent the new high waistlines. Un-snap-taps, button-downs, short belted suits that subtly follow points and both square and body lines compete for interest with the belted designs.

MICKEY VOGEL is wearing a black and white silk sheath. Her white duster is of Cohama material. Little Sandra Vogel looks adorable in her pink and white cotton striped princess with white bertha collar. The pillbox hat is pink and white striped, too. Her purse and white nylon gloves complete her outfit. Mickey and Sandra made their selection at Simons.

Junior Miss Not Dreaming!

Tiny misses don't need a fairy ball.

All day and dream-time lingerie is fussily feminine—just as they've wished for.

Shifts are the big shape for little girls. Whether straight, full or A-lined, they're so beguilingly ruffled and frilled that they could be worn to Cinderella's.

Some shifts come with rick-rack trimmed panties for under-cover. Pajamas, too, have shift-shaped tops and are usually flounced.

High-waisted batiste gowns with embroidered bodices and matching peignoirs are so provocative that mother wishes they'd come in her size.

The News Is Blues in Men's Suits This Year

Men's suits for spring 1962 of the well-dressed man. Another revival that marks the current season is the two-button suit.

Attributed in part to the influence exerted by President Kennedy, the present two-button models are distinctly different in character than those of the recent past.

The very newest expressions of this model are rather conservative. In some instances they actually are modified versions of the natural shoulder suits.

These gains are not sensational in numbers, but they are consistent. Vestiges of the Continental models are still to be seen in some new Trans-American styles as well as in some of the moderately extreme Continental-type suits.

One of the interesting Trans-American models is a one-button model with peak lapels that also has a double-breasted vest.

The California-inspired Ambassador model maintains a special niche in the fashion picture as many men hold its steady devotees as the show a decided preference for ears go by and adds more fans its figure flattering tailored lines.

Of course, the simply detailed American Natural model with its very conservative lines continues to be a national favorite.

Its modified natural shoulder, three-button front and styles as well as in some of the moderately trim trousers have extreme Ivy unflinching appeal to most American businessmen.

PRACTICAL for country living is the handsome blue and white cotton tweed sheath with jacket by Country Set modeled by Irene of the Emporium in Lafayette. Accented by black patent shoes and a patent purse also found at the Emporium. Dress available in green and white also.

SHARON Wiley models an Italian inspired two piece all wool flat knit fashioned by Caprician and available at Sandra Joy.

"SMART" IS the word for these two models by Capezio featured at the Village Shoe Rack, Walnut Creek. Patents in a wide range of color, or combined with linen make big Easter fashion news. Among the exciting shades: Goldenrod linen, Bangkok green, blue grotto and moro coral. Also shoe news: Open look on the side, instep harness tie and little pivot heel.

MICKIE ROMER is shown modeling a beautiful three piece Italian knot from Charlene's collection. The skirt is fully lined and has a kick pleat. May be found in pink, blue, green, black and red.

Ensemble Liked by the Girls

Little girls are made of sugar and spice, and this spring every-thing nice to wear.

The newest and nicest things for young misses to wear seem to be based on the ensemble look. Dresses with coordinating jackets or coats and suit and blouse ensembles all give little women something big to brag about.

Dress ensembles usually boast jackets which vary in length from the rib-hugging to knee-tickling.

Princess flares and simple little-nothing dresses like mommy's make news for spring. Cape-topped dresses are popping up, too.

And of course, smock dresses for wee ones are still fashion-favorites. Dresses coordinated with coats are newsworthy.

The coats, themselves, are found in any number of materials, but usually in a loose basket-weave type of fabric. When the word "coat" is mentioned for young misses, "flare" is the next word.

Whether the flare, modified or otherwise, begins at the shoulder for a cape effect, the ribcage for Empire effect, or the hipline for a long torso effect, the flare is always there.

The majority of jackets for blue color flag. Beige, brown, and grey are also a little woman's delight for spring. When there's a party in the offing, bonbon shades win.

Suit skirts are mostly pleated, though the "A" shape makes fashion news. Overblouses to coordinate with suits appear everywhere, usually in print tones.

Many dresses, suits and coats come in Easter egg colors waving a patriotic red, white and blue color flag. Beige, brown, and grey are also a little woman's delight for spring.

When there's a party in the offing, bonbon shades win.

Our Fashions Are Light and Airy Fabrics Are Varied; 4 Leaders

Those Slacks Will Fit You

Slacks for spring are expressive—dominate. Blue tones are gaining in popularity, although the olives and grays are still the top choices. Solid tones will be far in the lead, and patterns will be muted.

For the tall, slender man there are the new slim slims, usually the beltless "hugger" type. For the middle-sized man there are trim (but still traditional) slacks, plain front or single pleat, with or without belt loops.

For the heavier man, single pleat, belt loop types will predominate.

High in front, low in back is the way of many waistlines. Cutaway jackets contribute much to this silhouette.

NAN BARICH is wearing a Julie Miller two-toned polka dot washable cotton dress with full skirt and sailor tie to be found in a variety of colors at Village Square Casuals. Joani Dirickx is wearing a washable cotton sheath with jacket of white print on teal blue by Gay Gibson.

Four leading members of fashion's family of fabrics arrive in the new spring styles. They are: surface-textured; smooth; lacy; sheer.

Sheer might be said to be the parent of all the others, for fabrics generally are developed to whisperweights, thin and airy. However, there are also sheer and supple fabrics in a class by themselves — chiffons, crepes from wool to silk, and chiffon-weight wools. Knits are noted especially for suppleness.

All of these drape and shape to the feminine lines of new fashions.

Surface-textured group ranges from nubby wools and wool looks to ribbed types — twills, ottomans — and many kinds of textured silks.

Mohair loops often add surface interest to wools.

Smooth types find their strongest representative in crisp silk- and worsted blends.

'Siren Side' Gets Full Attention

The siren side of the feminine nature gets full attention.

Floppy crepes and chiffons are draped and swirled with awareness of curves.

There's a Spring Coat In Every Woman's Life

Thanks to the diversity of coat styles, there's a spring coat feminine form, subtly or other- that's currently fashionable, yet wise, as coats haven't done in appropriate for every woman's a long while.

Coats range from the always lacy, open-weaved textures are popular, yet new type of slim just slightly in the lead of coat, the redingote, to a fully-smooth wool blends for fashion flow fashion shape, the cape prominence. Cashmere is also on the rise in coat importance.

Pointed Toe Not Needed

Shoes for every occasion are interpreted in dozens of new looks, shapes and leather colors for spring.

Women have been freed from the "single toe look," reports Shoe Fashion Service of Leather Industries of America.

The rounded crescent toe silhouette is available for around-the-clock wear in pumps, moccasins, ties and sandals, and in smooth, suede, grained and patent leathers.

The new square toe look is afoot in tailored spectators in smooth or grained leathers, often teamed with suede for a two-hue, two-texture shoe.

Casual flats in brushed or colored patent leather and slip-ons set on an inch-high stacked walking heel have the squared-off toe.

For the now-classic pointed toe, there are hundreds of styles, colors and leathers available in dress and sports shoes.

RIDING HIGH with her new shoes and bag from Kushins shoe store, Walnut Creek, is Mrs. Robert Elworth of Alamo. Her casual "flatty" by Nina with its multi-color and square toe is as comfortable as it is smart. The hand tailored bag by Leon is of hopsack and trimmed in leather.

DELTA SIGMA

Ann Roddey, Orinda, is one of 36 undergraduate students to be initiated into Delta Sigma chapter of Alpha Chi Omega national social sorority, at the University of the Pacific.

Formerly Zeta Phi, a local campus social sorority, Delta Sigma is the 99th chapter of Alpha Chi Omega, founded at De Pauw University, Greencastle, Indiana, October 15, 1885. Five other California chapters of the National Panhellenic member sorority are at the University of California, Berkeley; University of Southern California, University of California at Los Angeles, San Jose State College and San Diego State College.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

The East Bay Kappa Kappa Gamma Alumnae Association will hold its March meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. James Speans, 237 Estates Drive, Danville.

Sportswear sails in with a nautical view this spring.

Wide, freely-flared bell bottom trousers ride the waves of fashion, and there's a fleet of pants to be worn slung low on the hips—about two and a half inches below the natural waistline.

Called "hipsters" or "St. Tropez" for St. Tropez, the resort where the fashion originated—pants, these are usually slim. They range in length from cabin boy to short.

THE HIPSTER pants allow full range where tops are concerned.

These run the gamut from high-exposure bikini tops to hip-grazing slim or tank tops. More and more hipline tops are seen in a variety of striped fabrics.

Since hipster pants give room for tucked-in-or-out tops, fitted jackets and blouses are other popular sailing mates.

SHARING the deck in blouse styles are overblouses to wear out and "sissy" blouses to tuck in, with lots and lots of lace and/or ruffles for a feminine air.

For sports and leisure, double-tiered boleros, cardigan-like tops and a galaxy of sweaters join the sportswear crew. Skirts for spring are flared by pleats, zores, gathers, flounces. The hipster pants are echoed by skirts that start low on the hips, too.

Classically slim skirts, of course, have a well established claim.

RUSTIC-LOOK fabrics cruise in, with denim claiming renewed importance. It's used for many tops and in pants in traditional blues and other shades.

Other rustics are duck, unbleached muslin, burlap and hopsacking.

the fashionable feminine look is by no means neglected. Lace, embroidery, pleated cotton in sets lend an air of pretty fragility to the sturdiest denim, and dainty colors and trims adorn the ducks and muslins.

Stretch fabrics move from winter ski pants to a variety of sportswear fashion. Stretch denim is important here.

SIGMA KAPPA

The Diablo Valley Sigma Kappa alumnae met Thursday, at 7:45 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Harper, 52 Oakwood Road, Orinda. The speaker for the evening was a member of the Sigma Kappa group, Mrs. Basil Winslow. She spoke on "Spring Flower and Garden Arrangements."

Mrs. Winslow is well known in the Bay Area as a speaker and judge at flower shows.

After the talk by Mrs. Winslow, an auction of flower containers was held. The vases were supplied by members of the alumnae group.

Co-hostess duties were performed by Mrs. E. H. Bennett and Mrs. Robert Maynard, both of Orinda. Plans were made for the annual sim party-luncheon to be held in May. This al fresco affair will honor the 23 graduating seniors of the Sigma Kappa chapter at the University of California, Berkeley. Diablo Valley alums traditionally co-hostess this event with the Bay Cities Sigma Kappa alumnae group.

BETA SIGMA PHI

Tau Nu Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will hold election of officers at their next regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Massone in Concord.

Those nominated for office are: Mrs. Robert Massone, president; Mrs. Garth Duncan, vice-president; Mrs. Wally Billington, recording secretary; Mrs. Charles O'Bryan, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Wayne Coppock, treasurer; and Mrs. Fred McDougal, civilian defense officer.

The last meeting was held at Mrs. Gene Hagen's home in Pleasant Hill. Final plans were made for the recent dime-a-serving potluck dinner which was held at Mrs. Hagen's. Proceeds from this dinner went towards cystic fibrosis in addition to the chapter's regular donation given through the Diablo Area Council.

Mrs. Don Crosby passed around the lovely scrapbook for the year which she designed and composed.

Miss Pat Dahl, a transferee from Pennsylvania, was the special guest for the evening. Members attending were Mesdames: Arthur Brittain, Warren Cryer, Jerry Smith, John Evoniuk, Emmett Laidlaw, Raymond Stewart, John Thewhanger, Don Crosby, Robert Massone, Charles O'Bryan, Leonard Long, Garth Duncan, Jim Housley, Robert Singley, Fred McDougal, Wally Billington, Gordon Goodding, Gene Walker and Hagen.

KAPPA DELTA

The members of Diablo Valley Kappa Delta Alumnae Association will meet April 3 at 8 p.m. at Navlet's Nursery on Monument Boulevard in Concord. There they will enjoy a talk given by Mr. Brooks of Modesto on the topic of azaleas.

At the March 6 meeting, the members enjoyed slides and a talk given by a fellow member, Mrs. R. L. Newacheck of Concord, pertaining to her recent European trip to England, Yugoslavia and Denmark, to name a few.

Another member, Mrs. Wallace Redding of Concord, is currently on a trip to Denmark and Sweden and the Kappa Deltas were entertained by correspondence from Mrs. Redding at the last meeting.

The alumnae association has also embarked on another fund raising project. They are now selling cookbooks containing excellent old Texan recipes. These recipes were collected by a Kappa Delta Alumnae group located in Texas.

For further information concerning the forthcoming meeting at Navlet's, Kappa Deltas in the area are invited to contact Mrs. Edgeworth Rorke at MU 5-2591.

ALPHA DELTA PHI

The Alpha Delta Phi Mothers' Club will hold its annual spring party on Wednesday at the Berkeley Chapter House, 2401 Ridge Road. This year it will be a dessert party at 1:30 p.m., followed by "Elizabeth Arden's Portrait of Beauty."

Mrs. Lillian MacMillan, manager of the San Francisco Elizabeth Arden Salon, will present the program, which will be followed by a silent auction. Tickets are $2 and may be obtained from ticket chairman, Mrs. Paul Clark, 1009 Mariposa Avenue, Berkeley, LA 4-2446.

BETA SIGMA PHI

Wednesday evening Mrs. Daniel Torres, president of Tau Omicron, Beta Sigma Phi, will open her home for a dessert bridge.

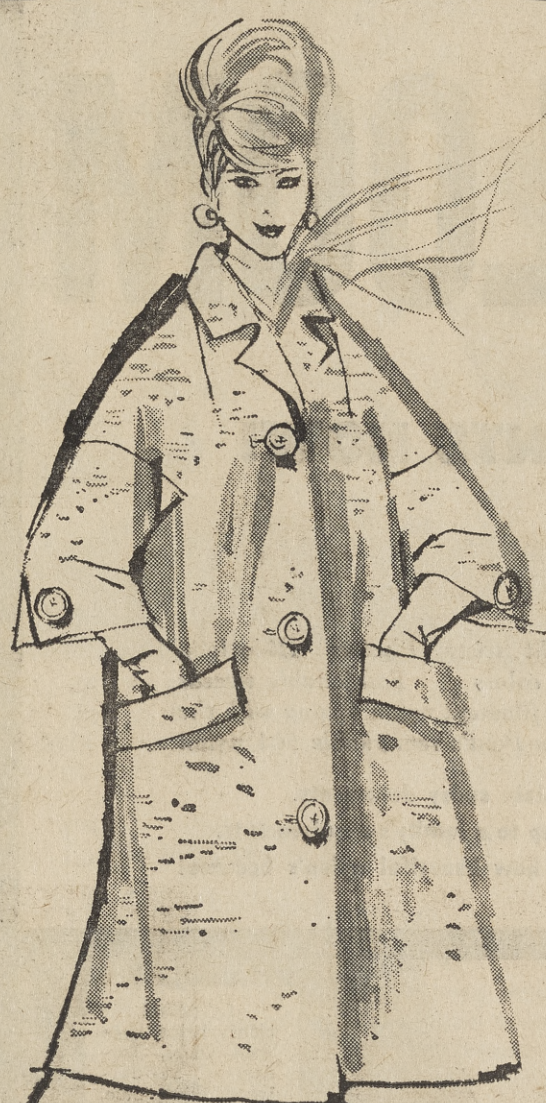

Mrs. Torres will be assisted in hosting by several of her sorority sisters. Both door and table prizes are being offered. The event will aid Tau Omicron's support of their Hong Kong "adoptee," Tam Ngan Nui.

A bowling party for sorority members and their husbands is being planned for the evening of March 31 by Mrs. Robert Werum, social chairman.

Teens Love Leather In New Spring Footwear

Teens nimbly "follow the lead" leaving tennis shoes and sneaker loafers and booties whose high heels this spring as new leather shoes behind in the gym lockers. vamps and long ties resemble bowling shoes, reports Shoe Industry of America. Supply smooth leathers, shaggy brushed leathers and gleaming colored patents set new shoe fashions.

fashions.

THE TWO-HUE shoe is one of the most popular "shoe looks" — especially new in moccasins with contrasting inserts, tricky tongue detailing.

Patents in gleaming black, shimmering green, radiant red brighten the moccasin line-up.

Colorwise, teens have the widest shoe color range in years — including two wonderful new neutrals; mocha mist — lighter than cafe creme color, and white jade — soft white leather with a hint of green.

This year the popular boot is more of a boot-shoe than a boot; the sides are still higher than a flat or pump, but never quite reach the ankle.

CUFFS, when there are any, are rich accents in contrasting leathers, colors.

Side laces, one and two-eyelet ties and high collar clip-ons offer variations on the by-now classic boot look.

King's Daughters Hold Tours of Girls' Home

The King's Daughters of Mizpah Circle in recognition of the many kindnesses shown by the people of this county while assisting the group in the complete furnishing of their Girls' Home, will open the home to visitors on the third Wednesday of each month.

The third such tour was held Wednesday at the invitation of Mizpah Circle with Mrs. Vere R. Simmons and Mrs. Lee S. Woolley, board members in charge. The home is located at 1186 Alta Vista Drive, Walnut Creek. The tour was from 1 to 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Established last July when the project received the commendation of the board of supervisors, a contract was signed enabling the King's Daughters to open their home which provides temporary care for girls within Contra Costa County from 12 through 15 years of age. This is at a much lower cost to the county than is normally budgeted for the care of children under the jurisdiction of the court.

While the circle project is under the supervision of a board of directors elected by the corporation, the home is presided over by the houseparent couple, Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Hovey who have a sincere regard for each girl placed in their care.

Believing that many others in the community feel a deep concern for the well-being of our youth, Mizpah Circle welcomes your interest and inquiries.

To augment funds necessary for the operating of the home, Mizpah Circle will hold a rummage sale in August and have plans for a bazaar in the fall.

Beckmanns Wed at Lovely Dutch Touch St. Patrick Day Service Lombardy Party Theme

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rees Beckmann were married at a lovely ceremony on St. Patrick's Day before 120 guests. The bride, formerly Linda Rae Whicker, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Whicker, 632 Las Palos Drive, Lafayette. She was given in marriage by her father.

The bridal bouquet was of stephanotis and white roses, centered with a large white orchid corsage.

The maid of honor was Francis Kyle and bridesmaid was Lois Turner. Their gowns were pale yellow sheaths of silk organza over taffeta. Junior bridesmaids were Sally Whicker, the bride's sister and Ann Beckmann, sister of the groom.

Best man was William Beckmann, the groom's brother. Ushers were A. R. Master Jr. and the father of the groom, J. R. Beckmann.

The bride's mother wore a beige lace dress, while the groom's mother chose beige silk. Both complemented their dresses with white orchid corsages.

A poem and the traditional box of candy recently passed to her Sigma Kappa sorority sisters in Berkeley announced the engagement of Madeleine Bryant to Philip Condit. The announcement was followed by a party at the Walnut Creek Sportsmen's Club for Phil's Alpha Delta Phi fraternity brothers.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Herschel Bryant of 1502 Sunset Loop, Walnut Creek, Madeleine attended Acalanes High School. She is presently a junior at the University of California. She formerly attended San Jose State College where she was chosen one of the 50 most active women on campus, and participated in student government and S.C.T.A.

She will preside on the upper, or Italian, terrace of the estate.

Rams Win Second In CCD---Bray Puts Shot 57-1

Pleasant Hill won its second straight track meet in the Contra Costa Division, edging Pacifica, 58-55, Wednesday. It was the first league meet for the Spartans.

The Rams had buried College Park, 79-34, in its opener. However, the Rams didn't fare too well the following day against Castlemont, losing 81-32, in the non-league affair.

Also last Wednesday, the Falcons lost their second CCD meet, 80-33, to Clayton Valley. It was the second league triumph for the Eagles.

In the other CCD meet last week, Mt. Diablo routed Antioch, 74-38. The win evened the Devils' track mark at 1-1. It was the second loss for Antioch. Pittsburg had a bye last week in league play after winning its opener.

The Pleasant Hill-Castlemont meet was highlighted by a toss of 57 feet 1 inch by the Rams' Chuck Bray in the shotput.

The toss broke Bray's school record of 56 feet which he set the week before.

The heavy places Bray in eighth place in the all-time record department for East Bay high schools. Bray also won the discus with a toss of 145-7, but the Rams had only one other winner in the meet—Pete Sturman, who won the mile in 4:38.8.

PH Swimmers Crush Falcons In CCD Meet

Pleasant Hill swimmers crushed a young College Park squad, 65-18, at the Pleasant Hill Recreation District pool last Friday.

Glen Graham and Robert Fabian, a freshman, splashed to a fine 24.8 clocking in the 50-yard freestyle, but it was the overall strength of the Ram squad that made the difference.

The Falcon squad garnished some glory on the strength of three excellent individual performances.

Cal Percy, a College Park freshman, set a league record in the 100-meter breaststroke event with a 1:11 clocking.

Jim Courtois, Falcon backstroke artist, raced to a 1:07.5 finish in that 100-meter event.

Chet Northway of College Park took his specialty, the 100-meter butterfly, in the fine time of 1:06.

The win gives the Pleasant Hill squad a 1-0 record in league play, and a 2-1 overall record. The Rams meet a strong Mt. Diablo team today at Mt. Diablo, in what should prove to be the tightest match of the CCD League competition.

FAL Golf Teams Open League Play

In Foothill League golf, six teams began season competition this week.

Miramonte linksmen, blasted Piedmont, 7-2, Monday. Matador number three man, John Spinola, was medalist with a 38 on the par 36 Chabot Country Club layout.

Acalanes, also in a Monday contest, defeated San Ramon, 8-1, at Round Hill Country Club. Gary Charles of Acalanes was medalist with a 37. Teammate Art Shierry finished with a 39.

In another league match, Las Lomas crushed Del Valle, 7-2, Tuesday at Diablo Country Club. Ted Roessler, number three man for Las Lomas, captured medalist honors with a 39.

In a non-league match Monday, the Knights defeated Carmel High School, 8-7, at Pebble Beach.

Number one man, Jim Roessler, was medalist for the match which ended at the sixteenth hole because of darkness.

McAdam Rolls 276 at Rheem

Bob McAdam started his second game of the night with nine strikes in a row, then finished with a 276 to set a new season's high in the Ball and Chain League at Rheem Bowl last week.

McAdam had started the evening with a 219 game. His three-game series was 678.

Frank Helm rolled a 244 and had a 613 series in the same league last week. Other high games were rolled by Lefty Nerrigan, 232; Rick Sauer, 224, and Eleanor Rhoda, 223.

DVC Edges Gaels With Late Rally

Diablo Valley College broke a 2-2 deadlock with two runs in the eighth inning and then added three more in the ninth to defeat St. Mary's College, 7-3, last Thursday at Moraga.

Both teams had hits and made four errors.

Narrow Defeats For PH, Falcons In Gymnastics

College Park and Pleasant Hill High Schools, competing in the East Bay division of the Northern California Gymnastics Association both lost close meets last Friday.

Freemont of Oakland squeezed past the Rams, 65-59, at Pleasant Hill, while nearby College Park was defeated, 71-57, by Mt. Diablo.

In the Rams' meet, Dennis Hanson compiled 23 points by capturing two firsts, a second, a third, and a tie for third.

Don Douglas added 10 points with one first and a second, while Terry Whisman captured three thirds for nine points.

Just one more third place would have meant a tie for the Pleasant Hill squad.

Mt. Diablo swept the parallel bar and side horse events from College Park gymnasts which gave them their margin of victory.

Ken Poff took first in free exercise and tumbling, but missed his bounce in the trampoline, costing the Falcons a sweep in that event.

Rae Anders, Don Torrence and Scott Gardiner performed strongly in their specialties, but Mt. Diablo's all-around strength proved too much for the young Falcon squad.

Pleasant Hill winners were: Horizontal bar—Dennis Hanson (second), Terry Whisman (third).

Free exercise—Dennis Hanson (third).

Trampoline—Dennis Hanson (first), Tom Moore (third).

Still rings—Don Douglas (second), Dennis Hanson (tied for third).

Parallel bar—Don Douglas (first), Terry Whisman (third).

Side horse—Len VanNoord (second).

Tumbling—Dennis Hanson (first), Terry Whisman (third).

College Park winners were: Horizontal bar—Don Torrence (third).

Free exercise—Ken Poff (first), Rae Anders (third).

Rope climb—Don Torrence, Scott Gardiner (tied for second).

Trampoline—Rae Anders (first), Scott Gardiner (third).

Still rings—Tom Chapman (second).

Tumbling—Ken Poff (first), Scott Gardiner (second).

Dons Top FAL Track; Knights, Trojans Win

Acalanes moved to the front of the Foothill League in track this week after scoring its second straight triumph last Friday. Idle Piedmont is in second with a 1-0 record.

The Dons ran roughshod over outmanned Alhambra, 93½-19½. It was the second straight loss for the Bulldogs, who took it on the chin from Miramonte, 83½-29½, last week. Acalanes won 11 of 13 events as Jim Rinne and Paul Hein were double winners.

In other FAL dual meets last week, Las Lomas bounced Miramonte, 68½-44½, and Del Valle edged San Ramon, 63-50.

Las Lomas is now 1-1, losing last week to Piedmont. Miramonte and Del Valle are both 1-1 while San Ramon is 0-1.

The Ski Line . . .

Characters on Skies It's a Familiar List

By HEC HANCOCK

There is one thing skiing has in great abundance, and that's characters. Great, huge hordes of characters.

Just why the sport should attract so many of the eccentrics of the human race remains a mute question. While it is true that other sports have their share of screwballs, there is none that can match skiing character for character and be around at the finish.

Perhaps the attraction of hurtling down the side of a mountain that has all the characteristics of an elevator shaft has a special appeal for those that wear their myriad of idiosyncrasies just under their skin. Whatever the reason, skiing has a multitude of individuals that through their collective bizarre habits add greatly to the color and atmosphere.

For the benefit of those without a program to tell names and numbers of players, we'll list a few.

First of all, there's the "Sierra Club" type. This is the purist. The ultimate in skiing for him is to take off country, and ski tour with nature his only companion. A chair lift has about the same appeal for him as the bubonic plague. Can be easily identified by baggy, GI issue ski pants, ruck sack and seal skin climbers.

Next is the best-dressed non-skier category. Usually predominated by the female. Invariably found in or about the lodge. They dress impeccably in the latest fashion, sport a glowing tan, and can perform the most intricate of polkas and schottisches. Never seen on the slope, as most don't even own a pair of skis.

Then there is the ski bum. Usually in his late teens or early twenties, although exceptions have been known to continue through middle age. Definitely young at heart. Quite often skis in jeans or work clothes, for he usually has to hustle off the slope to tend to the menial tasks that provide his living. Most are expert skiers, and many eventually become instructors. While his clothing is nondescript, check his boots and skis, which are only of the best.

A prominent type at any large resort, is the racer. This is the "hot pilot" type. His consuming passion is speed, speed, and more speed. Has a deep subconscious desire to try a free fall—without a parachute. Has tremendous balance, the agility of a cat, and the form of an accident going someplace to happen. Without exception is young. Like the boys that wear the wild blue yonder suits say, "there are old pilots, and there are hot pilots, but there are no old hot pilots."

Since someone must supply the continental touch, we have Hannes Weiner Schmeltz. Very European. His Austrian accent reaches full bloom in late fall. Usually hails from some place such as Dubuque.

Finally, there is the pro, the ski instructor. Handsome, debonair, he wears the most expensive of ski clothes in an immaculate manner. Comparing yourself to him, you can't escape the feeling that your ensemble looks as though you had slept in it. Makes skiing look so easy, you have a burning desire to see what he'd look like on the end of a ski pole. Often has just a trace of an accent, the echo of a distant Alp. During the winter, he's King of the Mountain. Very often can be found during the summer in greasy overalls making an honest living in a service station.

Those are a few of the many characters that populate the ski world. Recognize anyone you know?

The report on ski conditions from all areas continues to reflect excellent conditions, with the snow pack ranging upwards of 100 inches. Take your pick of areas, you can't miss.

Tim Sullivan, general manager of Alpine Meadows, reports that a time schedule for the operation of the lifts will be worked out so that skiers will be able to enjoy the spring skiing through May. Skiing will be made available early in the morning, and late in the afternoon. Due to the slushy conditions that prevail at that time, the lift will close during the midday hours, enabling one and all to enjoy a long siesta.

Ten Walks Help Las Lomas Edge Livermore, 9-7

Las Lomas took advantage of 10 walks to edge Livermore, 9-7, in a game called after six innings because of darkness at Livermore Tuesday.

The Knights had picked up three more runs in the seventh inning, but the score reverted to the previous inning when Livermore failed to finish its half of the seventh.

Las Lomas never trailed in the game after coming up with five runs in the third inning. The Knights stretched their lead to 6-0 before Livermore scored. After the Cowboys cut the margin to 6-4 at the end of four innings, Las Lomas added three more in the fifth.

Stan Nankivel collected four RBI's with two of the Knights' six hits.

A two-out single with the bases loaded in the second inning drove home two and a double in the fifth, again with two out, drove in two more.

A SINGLE by Jim Bodie, walks to Gordon Rakow, Bill Brown and Greg Bertagnoli and Rich Laven scored three runs for the Knights in the big second inning before Nankivel singled.

A single by Brown after a walk to Bodie and a sacrifice to Rakow gave the Knights a six-run bulge in the top of the third.

In the fifth, John Mosolf walked and scored when Bertagnoli singled and Mike Breuleux was safe on an error. Bertagnoli and Breuleux both rode home on Nankivel's double.

Brown was the starting pitcher for Las Lomas, but he was lifted in the third with none out. Bob Kreider pitched the final four innings.

DVC Golfers Nip Stockton For 8th Win

Diablo Valley College golfers picked up their eighth win in 11 starts with a narrow, 8-7, triumph over Stockton Monday at windy Contra Costa Country Club.

Steve Lamphere and Dick Shaul of DVC shared medalist honors with 75s.

Don Minor had a 77 while Dennis Gault finished with an 83 to round out the DVC scores.

The Vikings travel to Monterey this afternoon for a Coast Conference match at Del Monte Country Club against Monterey Peninsula College. The Viks, defending co-champion of the conference, are 1-1 so far this season.

Mats Defeat Amador, 3-1; Pitt, 12-6

Miramonte High opened its tune-up baseball schedule with consecutive wins over Amador and Pittsburg on Friday and Tuesday.

Matador batsmen made the most of three hits in the Amador game, scoring two runs in the second and one in the sixth to provide the 3-1 victory margin.

Miramonte pitchers, Ken Boil, Dick Brown, Kreg Hyde and Gordy Templeton, held Amador batters to one run on three hits, striking out six while walking two.

Ken Boil gained the win and added a triple in the hitting department.

In a wild affair at Pittsburg Tuesday afternoon, Miramonte outlasted the Pirates to gain a 12-6 victory in a game that ended after six innings because of darkness.

AFTER scoring two runs in the first inning, the Matadors capitalized on three walks in running up five more runs in the second.

Consecutive walks issued to Glen Tobias, Dave Texdahl and Doug Marsh loaded the bases. Tobias scored on Bill Cooper's grounder to third. Brad Peter singled, scoring Texdahl and Marsh. Bob Williams whacked a triple, sending home Peters, and then scored on Bruce Nickerson's infield out.

Boil picked up his second win of the season for the Miramonte club. Bown and Hyde also worked on the mound for the Matadors.

Marsh was the game's individual hitting star, collecting a triple and a single in three trips, driving in three runs.

Dons Tounce Alameda for 3rd Track Win

Acalanes won its third straight dual track meet of the season, routing Alameda, 83½-29½, Tuesday afternoon in Lafayette. The Dons are 2-0 in the Foothill League.

Paul Hein and Jim Rinne were double winners for the Dons.

Hein won the 120 high hurdles and 180 low hurdles.

Rinne took the 220 and 880 events.

Modesto Blanks Vikings, 5-0

Modesto Junior College blanked Diablo Valley College 5-0 in Pleasant Hill Saturday afternoon.

The visitors scored all their runs in the third inning.

The Vikings could muster only five hits in the game with Al Lakeman getting two.

Foothill League, CCD Begin Play Thursday

Miramonte, Acalanes and Las Lomas opened their 1962 baseball seasons with two wins each and have given good reason why this season's Foothill League race will be interesting.

San Ramon has gotten off on the wrong foot, losing its first two non-league games—both by one run. Del Valle is 1-1 so far.

Alhambra was the Foothill champion last year with a 13-2 record. Las Lomas and Acalanes tied for second with 10-5 marks while Miramonte finished fourth with a 6-9 record. San Ramon was 5-10 and Piedmont 1-14.

This year, with the addition of Del Valle, FAL teams will play a double round-robin schedule of 12 games.

LEAGUE play in the Foothill League begins Thursday with three games.

Miramonte is at Del Valle, Las Lomas at Acalanes and Piedmont at Alhambra. San Ramon has a bye.

Opening action in the Contra Costa Division will begin on the same day with College Park and Pleasant Hill squaring off at Diablo Valley College.

LAS LOMAS has shown the most firepower to date, winning 11-2 over College Park and 9-7 over Livermore.

Coach Duane Louis lost Bill Remy, his top pitcher last year, via graduation and Rich Nye, an outstanding left hander, who broke his leg in the basketball season.

Larry Bradford, a sophomore, and Bob Krieder, a junior, will have to take up the slack.

The Dons have shown an outstanding pitching staff to date, allowing one run and five hits in 16 innings.

Coach Erwin Mattson has used four pitchers in winning, 1-0, over Pleasant Hill, and 4-1 over College Park.

THE ACALANES hits have been few and far between, with John Paul Jones and Bob Gillham probably the best of the regulars.

Brian Allen, Jeff Hearn, Bob Strain, a sophomore, and Jones give the Dons plenty of depth in the pitching department, however.

MIRAMONTE has defeated Amador, 3-1, and Pittsburg, 12-6.

Four pitchers limited Amador to three hits with Ken Boil getting the win as well as the one against Pittsburg.

Coach Don Foster apparently will rely on Boil, Dick Brown and Kreg Hyde to handle his pitching chores. Doug Marsh, Brad Peter and Glen Tobias appear to be the best in the hitting department.

Del Valle coach Doug Pederson will probably have the same troubles he encountered during the basketball season.

EYES UPWARD as E. J. Emerson of Acalanes heads for a winning vaule of 10-9 in a Foothill League meet with Del Valle. The young man in the dark sport shirt (lower left) seems a bit worried as the cameraman stops the action in the midst of Emerson's vault, providing this strange view of the pole vaulter. Annual Orinda Jr. Tennis Tourney Opens April 14

Drawing top seeded players from throughout Northern California, the Fifth Annual Orinda Junior Tennis Tournament will be held April 14-18 sponsored by the Orinda Country Club, Kevin Merrick, tournament chairman, announced this week.

More than 450 entrants are expected to play in the tourney which is the largest in Northern California, Merrick said. The five-day event is sanctioned by the United States Lawn Tennis Association and the Northern California Tennis Association.

Entries are divided into single and double matches in four classes for both boys and girls. They are: 18 years of age and under, 16 and under, 14 and under, 12 and under. A special class for younger singles players, both boys and girls 10 and under, also is scheduled. Because the junior age groups, with the exception of the maximum of 18 years, were officially changed by the U.S.L.T.A. this year, allowing the juniors one more year to play in their classes, there will be 17 of last year's champions defending their titles in the Orinda tournament.

More than 1500 entry applications have been mailed to clubs and courts throughout Northern California. Deadline for receiving entries is Friday, April 6. Housing and most meals will be provided to players having to travel 50 miles or more.

Four Acalanes Pitchers Halt Falcons, 4-1

In a nine-inning game Tuesday, Acalanes turned back College Park, 4-1.

The Dons backed winning pitcher John Paul Jones with three runs in the eighth inning, giving him a four-run cushion.

Acalanes picked up one run in the sixth when Jones reached second on a bad throw to first, and then came home on Rick Underwood's single.

In the eighth, Jan Janlois singled, Ken Farrell made the second out on a sacrifice, moving Janlois to second. Underwood doubled, scoring Janlois, Bob Gillham tripled, sending home Underwood, and Steve Kosach singled to drive in Gillham.

Underwood's single in the sixth was the only hit allowed by College Park starter Terry Henson, who struck out five and walked three. Henson has allowed only one run and two hits in 11½ innings.

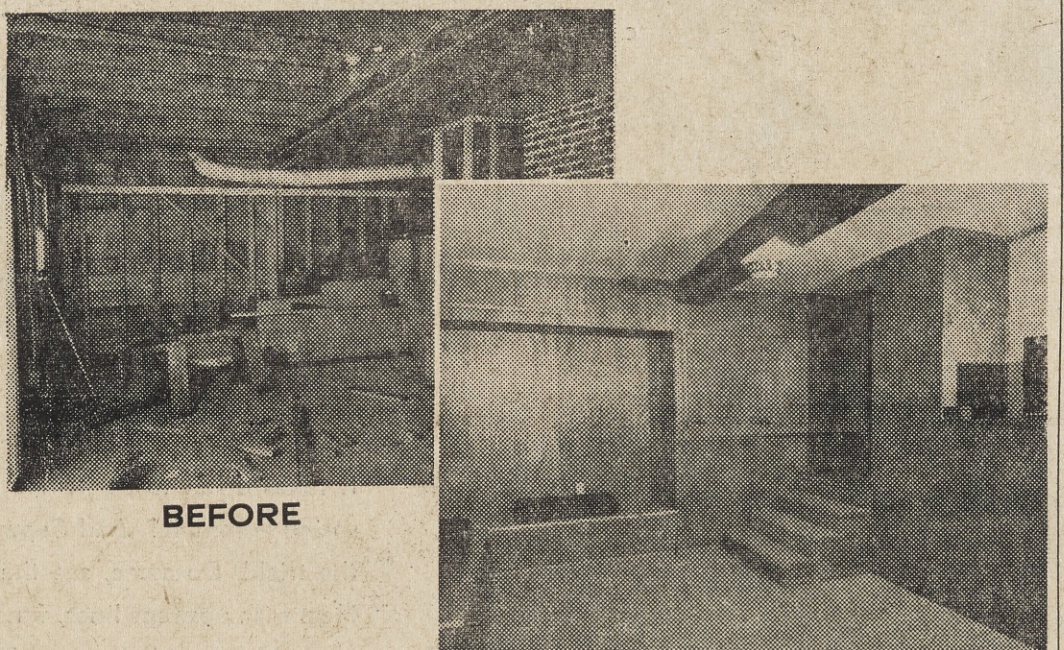

Acalanes pitchers Brian Allen, Bob Strain, Jeff Hearn and Jones allowed Falcon batsmen only four hits.

Underwood with two singles and Bob Gillham with a triple provided the bat power for the Dons.

Falcon Golfers Blank Livermore

College Park linksmen crushed Livermore, 6-0, at Contra Costa Country Club Monday.

Dave Harvey was medalist with a 40 on the par-36 layout. Other scores for College Park golfers were: Tom Mason, 41; Dave Bonini, 42; Don Wilson, 44; Dick Scofield, 46; Damon Herbert, 52.

Big Motel at Buchanan Field Is Planned

A near million-dollar, deluxe, one-half month period in which to attract competitive proposals. The board also approved the tentative lease and terms and conditions of bidding. On February 28, the board received a sealed proposal from a group of Oakland developers headed by James Boornazian and Robert Burnstein, attorneys; George Samson, builder, and Frank Cooper, investment broker.

At that time, Boornazian stated his group would immediately build a first class restaurant, cocktail lounge, banquet rooms, and 100 motel units at an initial cost of $900,000. Another 78 units would follow, as needed, at a cost of an additional half million dollars. According to bidding terms, competitors must also agree to build a similar installation, at an initial cost of no less than $750,000.

Car Demolished When Driver Falls Asleep

Although his car was totally demolished, John Bogert, 224 Eileen Drive, Pleasant Hill, escaped serious injury early Tuesday morning after he fell asleep while driving on the freeway near Lafayette.

Bogert told the California Highway Patrol that he was traveling east on Highway 24 at 2:45 a.m. at about 55 miles per hour when the accident occurred. He said he "just fell asleep" and that he was quite weary.

Officers said Bogert's car struck a guard rail at a bridge overpass, tore down 30-feet of guard railing, then flew some 80-feet through the air and landed on a private road 20-feet below the freeway. The car landed on its top, officers reported. Bogert said he crawled out just before the auto caught fire.

Political Campaigns Coming to Our Area

California's political battle coming before the November elections will be exciting to watch, and you will be able to see many of the contestants in the flesh as they visit Contra Costa County.

As a voter and taxpayer, it will serve you well to keep track of these local meetings to be attended by political leaders of both parties.

Seeing them in person will make many of the current issues "real" for you and will increase your interest in your responsibilities as a citizen.

TOP OF THE list at present is the appearance of former Vice President Richard Nixon April 3 at the Concord Inn, during the Concord Area Chamber of Commerce installation banquet.

Of great interest is the planned appearance of another Republican candidate for the gubernatorial nomination—Joseph Shell.

Shell will speak next Monday night at Happy Valley Inn under the sponsorship of the Contra Costa Chapter of the Republican Association of California.

As most readers these two Republicans each have their own philosophies of government and they hasten to disagree.

CENTRAL COUNTY residents have already heard Stanley Mosk, Democrat and the state attorney general, speak at a meeting in Inland Valley School, Moraga, also Howard Jarvis, Republican candidate opposing in the primaries U.S. Senator Thomas Kuchel, a Republican.

Mosk was sponsored by the Orinda-Moraga Democratic Club and other area clubs.

Other signs of active politics on the local level included the recent visit to Acalanes High of Dr. Fred Schwarz, spearhead of the "Christian Anti-Communist Crusade." The audience filled the high school auditorium and extra seats were needed.

The largest attendance ever was recorded at the recent pre-primary endorsing convention held by the county Democratic clubs in Concord.

THE DEMOCRATS endorsed Charles Weidner, but another Demo candidate, Harold Mutnick, is still in the race.

Both of them will have a tough campaigner to face — U.S. Representative John Baldwin, who will be able to concentrate his efforts in our county alone, since the congressional district was reduced in size, excluding Solano County.

Television and newspapers will help you keep up with the campaigns. But keep a sharp eye out for the real-life political doings in your own county. Attendance as such events will help you form your own opinions on current issues.

dealers, however, do refrain from selling guns and ammo to the very young. Young people with guns and ammunition and without supervision are dangerous people—dangerous to themselves and others.

The Sun hopes that the ordinance drawn up by the district attorney's office will be good enough to warrant the approval of the board of supervisors.

UNDER OUR U.S. Constitution, there is the right to "keep and bear arms," and many of our homes have sporting guns of all types.

This is another dangerous situation for the young child which county laws cannot touch.

Is there a gun or ammunition in your home which might fall into the hands of an innocent and curious child?

Then, now is the time to do something about it before a tragedy occurs.

Gun Law Gaining

Supervisor Tom Coll should be complimented for his support of a county ordinance which would prohibit the sale of any kind of firearm or ammunition to any person under 18 years of age unless accompanied by at least one parent.

Coll said he would ask the district attorney's office to prepare such an ordinance after The Sun advocated such action in recent editorials.

We do not believe that the passage of a law alone will be the entire answer to a situation where children are able to reach firearms and ammunition in the home, but such a law would be a positive step.

THE CITY OF Walnut Creek right now has a law prohibiting the sale of ammunition, even BB's, to children under 16 years, but elsewhere in the central county such sales do take place.

Many hardware and sporting good the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the founding of the national organization.

We know the Diablo Valley Area Girl Scout Council will continue to produce the leaders without whom the entire local program would cease to function.

Many Girl Scout leaders have served the movement well for years, but there is always the need for new leaders.

Such leadership is an opportunity for women to serve their community and receive rich benefits in their own personal lives at the same time.

The Staff Corner Faintly Philately

By VIC RUGH

Early residents of what is now Central Contra Costa County probably built up their larders by utilizing Indian wampum. Today's residents are following the same pattern but the wampum—instead of beads and trinkets—consists of various colored pieces of paper known as trading stamps.

Actually, the modern wampum collectors are probably much stricter about their deals than the old timers. It's doubtful that one misplaced bead caused any agitation a century or more ago, but a miscounted stamp has held up many a long line of shoppers in a super market.

STATISTICS just released nationally show that Californians save more stamps than persons of any other region. The independent research firm of Benson and Benson, Inc., of Princeton, New Jersey, says 91 per cent of all California families indulge in this pastime.

This compares with a national average of slightly less than 75 per cent.

Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda, Moraga, Pleasant Hill and the towns surrounding definitely come up to the 91 per cent figure, according to local dispensers of the stamps, as well as the redemption centers located in the region.

S&H green stamps were apparently the pioneers in the field in California. Other various stamps have made their appearance in recent years with a Thrifty blue stamp being created by several chain firms in California as a definite competitor.

BUT THERE are many other stamps to be picked up driving along the highway. Some of the radio stations circulate their own savings stamps among their advertisers. Filling station chains have created their own issues of stamps and some even have merchandise available inside the stations.

What can you buy with stamps? Everything from gasoline to gas stoves, from a rocking horse to a rocking chair, from a rocking horse to a rocking chair.

"Large families are more apt to be stamp savers than small ones," declared a local redemption official. "And here's something that will probably surprise you—higher income families are more inclined to be thrifty with savings stamps than those in the low income bracket."

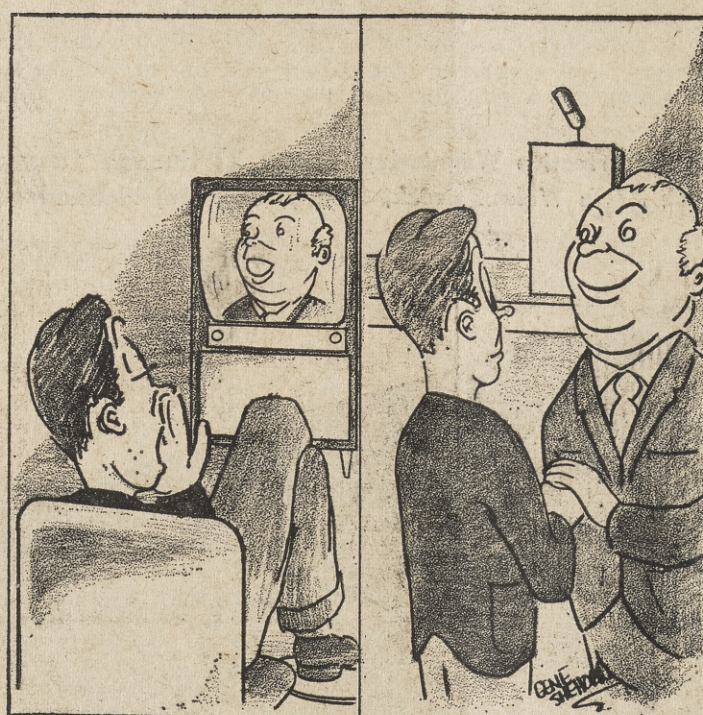

Apparently new families find the premiums awarded by the stamp firms more to their liking than to the older folks.

A WHOPPING 84 per cent of the families in the 21 to 34 age group utilize the premiums in furnishing their home or gratifying personal yearnings. Above the age of 50 only 68 per cent take the trouble to save and redeem them.

There's a sidelight to the stamp collecting business. Many times Walnut Creek area housewives show up with two or three kinds of stamps at a redemption center, hoping to work them in. As a result the feminine collectors will trade with each other to strengthen their buying position.

"Swapum wampum"—the game might be called.

We Like It Here . . . A tribute to a trusty, Tired, true-blue friend

By MARIE MONAHAN

I FEEL like I've lost my Best Friend. When the man took her way this morning, I couldn't bear to watch.

We'd been so close to one another; she'd given me the best 10 years of her life!

EVEN when I abused her, she never let me down. She never went temperamental & only once did she blow her top & let off steam!

OF ALL the times I ditched her, she never complained & always came up smiling.

She wore the battle scars of a growing family & was a friend to Man or Mouse!

IN FACT, one little feller for many years nested nightly in the bosom of her warm battery. On a foam mattress, yet! Which he daily fashioned from the front seat upholstery fillings.

FAITHFUL Old Wagon! Think how many Scouts, Brownies, baseball bats, swimming tubes, kites & Kids she carted around all those years! Not to mention an assortment & ill-assortment of the Animal Kingdom.

There was a spider who spun his daily web from the rear vision mirror to the driver's wheel & now where will HE go?

The faded blue bus steadfastly supported me when I, like the Pied Piper, bravely bore through the tunnel with a batch of 39 baby pet rats to never-mind-where. (For $1.00 it was a bargain!)

AT LEAST 20 litters of kittens have been delivered to new homes by her—then there were the trips to the Vets with dogs, cats, puppies, other people's injured pets & I couldn't begin to count the rabbits, hamsters, turtles, birds, guinea pigs she's carried as cargo.

SHE could always be counted on to help with the paper route except one Sunday morning when she wasn't there at all. Someone had taken her for a ride on Saturday night but she was home again in no time. Not the least dejected at having been abandoned at the bottom of the hill!

She had certain signs of distinction & everybody knew her. She was not a common creature. Why, they just don't make her kind no more!

SHE WORE her license plates slightly askew, carried herself lopsided but loftily & had a hum, like a farmer's plow, that let you know she was coming around the bend.

She wore well the sticky fingerprints on her windows & her rusty bumps & bulges just added to her solid homey features.

SHE KNEW all the younger models & tried & worn as she was, the sportscar set respected her. Indeed! When she puttered past a Jag or Volkswagon, they stepped aside FAST but not with disdain. Just a glint of admiration for the plucky old girl.

We'd pack her up with oak leaf mold, hay, dusty rummage. It didn't matter. What was a little more mess, more or less?

I COULD LEAVE her for hours unlocked & never worry about her.

She was always there when I came back & if she'd been in a scrape, I'd never even notice.

FAITHFUL to the last, she was a tried & true-blue friend. Now I feel like I've deserted her.

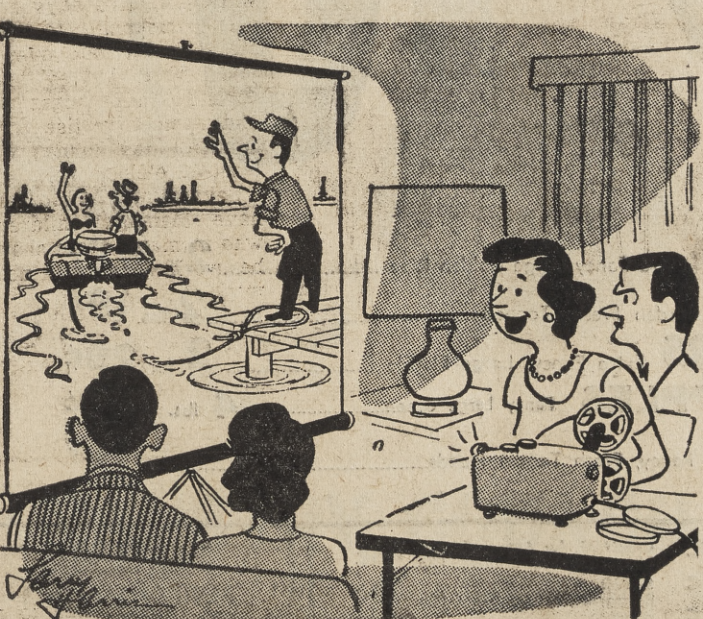

In her place stands a sleek new model. Cold & clean. Carpeted & chromed. Much too pristine & polished.

The new car is soooooo wide I feel I'm driving a space ship or an army tank!

IT IS ALL shine & spotless upholstery. (Hardly the place for peanut butter sandwiches & popsicles like the picnic-hamper that old Puddle Jumper was!)

THE NEW CAR & I haven't quite warmed up to each other yet. I guess it will take time.

AFTER ALL, the first few dents are the hardest of all . . . & maybe the Mouse & the Spider will even make it back someday!

"Watch, now! Here comes the part I was telling you about."

Letters to The Editor

HEART FELT

Dear Editor:

Now that the February Heart Fund drive of the Contra Costa County Heart Association has been completed, I want to express our appreciation to you for your part in bringing to the people of the community information about our needs and our progress during the course of the month-long campaign for funds to fight the heart diseases.

Also, throughout the year, your pages help us to carry our educational campaign to your readers. This assists us in achieving one of our objectives which is to bring to the attention of the public reports of the progress made in research for their benefit.

I should like to call to the attention of your readers the fact that such support by your newspaper, as well as broadcasting and television stations, is given as a public service at no cost to us.

In several instances, volunteers in the Heart Sunday drive reported that residents were under the impression that such space and time were paid for out of funds collected for the Heart drive.

We wish to reassure them that the greater portion of funds collected is channeled into research, our Number One program.

Other important programs in the battle to conquer heart disease are the education and community service programs, which are a means of extending the benefits of research.

The efforts of hundreds of volunteers who organize and collect funds enables us to carry out our objectives at the lowest possible cost, thus releasing more money for the important programs of the Contra Costa County Heart Association.

Without their unselfish help, as well as the broad and wholehearted support you give us, we would be unable to achieve our purpose—which is to bring us to the day when heart disease will be conquered.

FLOYD MARCHUS

PUBLIC DESERVES IT?

Dear Editor:

Sure, the administration of a public school is public business as Mr. Sullivan points out in his letter published in The Sun of March 17. But if the public is going to sit and confuse "dignity" with "inertia" until it gets ready to send its son or its daughter to these junior colleges whose reputations may be irreparably damaged beyond the possibility of accreditation, then maybe the public deserves just about what it is getting!

MRS. ROBERTA JOHNSON

CLOSE 'EM UP!

Dear Editor:

Recently we received a letter from the office of our Oakland Retail Merchants Association with suggestions how we can increase our profits and do more business. It was suggested that we have more night openings and I am very much at odds with such a proposal.

As a matter of fact, it is high time that the people of our wonderful country and our merchants take into consideration what it means to the family life and to our children, to keep stores open at night for which there is positively and absolutely no excuse.

There are undoubtedly other reasons for the increase in juvenile delinquency, but I contend that one great factor for this increase is night openings.

There may have been some reasons for this practice during the war, when in many cases there was a shortage of help and people worked six and sometimes seven days a week. What possible reason is there for night openings at this time when most people work only five days a week?

It is sickening to me when stores blast out over radio and TV that they are now open so many night a week and even advertise they are open all day Sunday until at least 10 o'clock.

Several million mothers who have teen-age children and who in many cases should not be working at all, not only work during the day, but also work at night. As for Daddy, who does carry the burden of supporting the family, he also works several nights a week, and in too many cases, also on Sunday.

I am sure that most of our children who are getting into trouble, would be good boys and girls, if their Mummy and Dadd were at home to love and to be loved, to play games together and to really get acquainted, instead of being strangers, as they now are in too many cases.

What Can I Do? Here's A Program for Action

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

I have just finished reading one of the finest articles I have ever read—the first of a series of "Agenda for Action" by Erwin Canham, editor of the Christian Science Monitor.

The balance of this column will be devoted to a "Sunder Moral Society," the first of a series. Here is the article as it appeared in one of America's truly great newspapers:

What can I do?

The alert individual, facing a world in continuing crisis, can do much.

Sound standards . . .

The first steps in a personal agenda for action are moral. The individual can ask himself:

Am I setting and striving to live up to sound standards in my own life, standards free from hypocrisy, self-righteousness, dishonesty?

In the religious, the ethical, the parental training and experience of nearly every individual there are moral standards. They need to be applied. In the acceptance and fulfillment of individual standards lies the beginning of the greatness of nations.

Definitions needed . . .

But standards need to be defined, standards need to be explicit. One person's morality can easily be another's deceit. There is also great danger of moralizing—which which the United States has often been accused in world politics—instead simply of striving to live by moral standards.

What, then, are some moral standards for today? Life in the Western world manifests the following and other flaws, which need to be rectified by individual action:

People are too selfish, too self-indulgent, too soft, too heedless of basic values, too materialistic, too lazy—both mentally and physically—too lax in their moral codes, too unaware of the need of living nobly in a hazardous world.

Individual dedication

A program of personal action could begin with a more earnest individual dedication to the good of all. But it could also mean a reaffirmation of self-reliance, of personal responsibility, which is in fact reliance on God's guidance of individual man.

It could mean a more active acceptance of the duties of citizenship and of civic and political action. It could mean the rejection of mere self-indulgence, turning away from cheap sensualism.

It could mean willingness to work very much harder to achieve the goals of free society and of free individual life. It could mean a critical re-examination of the soft, sensual aspects of a materialistic consumer's society.

Totalitarianism has its brainwashing, its control of the thoughts of individual man by others.

Free society also has its efforts to beguile and seduce the decision-making process of the individual. Call it propaganda, call it depth psychology, call it public relations, it can come to the same invasion of men's birthright. Emancipation from this kind of mass mesmerism is the deepest sort of morality.

Information needed

Individuals must do their thinking for themselves. One way to equip themselves for decisions is by acquiring information. So one of the first things in an agenda for independent moral action is to seek and evaluate information.

Is it factual? Is it honest? Is it responsible? Information, like action, must be weighed against principles.

Daily individual action based on such principles—the true inheritance of free society—is a first long step toward the revitalization of the world we want. It is action we all can take.

ALREADY the grass needs cutting, and you must watch out for debris and sticks during the early springlike days now appearing. Claude Rumph pauses during his first workout.

Extension Won On Aqueduct Water Deadline

A Contra Costa County delegation to Sacramento has been successful in obtaining extension to December 31, 1963, of the deadline under which contracts can be made with the state for 12,000 acre feet of water, said Supervisor Mel F. Nielsen this week at the meeting of the board.

Director of Water Resources William Warne and Water Resources Attorney Abbott Goldberg were told the existing May 31, 1962, was unfair to Contra Costa County because it did not provide sufficient time for agencies and districts within the county. These agencies must determine the feasibility of contracting for the purchase of the recommended that the state be requested to extend its contract deadline to provide for time to continue the studies of methods for water development in southern Contra Costa County.

2-County School Lines Studied

School problems arising from increased population and the fact that San Ramon Valley extends into two counties may have made the current school district organization and boundary lines obsolete.

Because of the two-county problem, a Contra Costa-Alameda County committee is being formed to study lines of the San Ramon Valley-Dublin area which were put in force when it was agricultural in nature and sparsely populated.

Membership will consist of one member each from the four school boards of the area, to be selected by each board and a representative each from the two County Committees on School Organization, to be appointed by the chairman of each.

Consultants from each county superintendent's office who are acting as the committees' secretaries, Wilcken Fox, administrative assistant, Alameda County, and Dr. H. Frank Bradford, director of administrative services, Contra Costa County.

The four school districts are San Ramon (elementary) and San Ramon Valley Union High School of Contra Costa County and Murray and Amador Valley Joint Union High School of Alameda County. Amador Valley Joint Union High School District lies in both counties but is under the jurisdiction of Alameda County.

The committee will hold its first meeting in approximately a month from now, said Dr. Bradford. The group is to inform itself on such matters as the present status of school building sites, planning for future schools and population projections.

On the basis of its finding, Dr. Bradford added, a recommendation will be made as to whether the status quo should be maintained or changes effected in the school setup.

Richard Noble, son of Mrs. Elizabeth LaDame, 2131 Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek, is among new students enrolled at Linfield during the spring semester, now well underway.

Noble is a junior at Linfield, which is a four-year, fully accredited liberal arts college, for Christin citizenship.

Replacing burned-out lamps (in your plant or store) one-at-a-time comes high!

Lower your lighting costs by group relamping

You can do this by having a qualified electrical contractor do the job. He has the ladders, scaffolding equipment and bonded men to efficiently replace all lamps in your installation and at a time most convenient to you.

Tests show that after using 85% of the rated life of your lamps, burn-outs occur more frequently, light efficiency decreases while power costs increase. It takes the average maintenance man as much as 30 minutes to make each one-at-a-time replacement. By group replacement you'll effect healthy savings, so check your electrical contractor for an estimate. Why not do it today?

School Testing Will Affect 27,000 Pupils

(This is the second of a series of three articles prepared by the office of County Superintendent Floyd Marchus on the effects of new legislation will have on the Costa County will be tested for IQ and achievement in 1962-63. Approximately 27,000 students under the new statewide mandatory testing program. Students will be tested at three grade levels, 5, 8 and 11, and in three subjects, reading, arithmetic and language.

STATEWIDE it is estimated that 2,100,000 pupils will be tested in a three-year period, and for each of them there will be 10 to 15 different scores. Only machine computing makes possible a statistical undertaking of such dimensions, and even so, the data will be so voluminous that the State Department of Education will confine its use of them to establishing statewide norms. Contra Costa County school districts so desiring may have their tests scored and analyzed by a new high-speed electronic computer, the IBM 1401, which the county government will soon install in the court house at Martinez. With the exception of the small schools, districts will select their own tests. The Contra Costa County Board of Education has selected the tests to be administered in the district having less than 901 average daily attendance.

Canyon Students Attend Campolindo

Acalanes Union High School District trustees have ruled that students from the Canyon area will attend Campolindo High School.

The ruling followed "careful board consideration" of a parent request that Canyon students be allowed to continue attending Miramonte High School.

In other action this week trustees placed the new Acalanes gymnasium south of the present old gym facility.

Noted progress of a community drive to raise funds towards construction of a swimming pool at Del Valle High School and instructed the district's architect to draw plans for the proposed plunge.

Sanctioned purchase of furniture and language lab facilities for the new Campolindo High School opening this fall to serve students from portions of Orinda, Lafayette, Canyon and Moraga; Named Mrs. Heloise J. Carr Dean of Girls for Campolindo High School. Mrs. Carr has been a teacher and counselor at Acalanes High School for 10 years; Agreed to the addition of a book storeroom at Las Lomas High School, and a study to improve public speaking equipment at Miramonte High.

SUPERINTENDENT Neil M. Parsons reported that the estimated district "drop out" rate for the past school semester is .09 of one per cent, emphasizing that each student withdrawal from school "receives careful attention from the counseling departments of the district and as much individual help for the student as can be provided."

Parsons explained that some of the drop outs include students who have left school to enter the service. "The relatively low drop out rate indicates that the school counselors are doing an effective job with the great majority of students in helping pupils work out their personal problems and encouraging them to stay on in high school."

Oil Paintings on Display at Library

They are graduate students at the California College of Arts and Crafts in Oakland.

This exhibition will remain at the library until April 12.

Former Warden Is Speaker for Jail Institute

Clinton T. Duffy, former warden of San Quentin Prison, will be the guest speaker at the Contra Costa County Jail Institute tomorrow morning at the Martinez Junior High School beginning at 9:45 a.m.

The one-day institute is sponsored by the prison committee of the American Friends Service Committee. Held every year in San Francisco for the past ten years, the institute grew out of the concern of citizens for their fellow men temporarily incarcerated, according to the Friends.
